Allies Proclaim State of Peace Dec. 1

RATIFY PEACE TREATY DEC. 1

Supreme Council Sets Date For Formal Ratification of Pact

Council Working Out Plans For Enforcement Without Aid of United States

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The supreme council today agreed on December 1, as the date when the German peace treaty will be formally ratified.

Further informal discussions have been held with the German representatives now here in connection with the notification by the allies that a protocol must be signed by Germany guaranteeing fulfillment of the armistice conditions. These discussions have been confined chiefly to the methods of procedure in considering the protocol. As yet the Germans have not stated whether they will sign the document.

The American delegation is still without instructions as to its participation in the peace conference following the failure of the senate to ratify the treaty, but Henry White attended the meeting of the supreme council today as representative of the United States. Under Secretary Polk being absent in London, and the entire delegation is continuing its work in the belief that a compromise ratification resolution will be agreed to in the United States.

This view is apparently shared by most of the members of the council, who are anxious for the continuance of the United States in the deliberations of the peace-making body. The council, however, is working out plans so that the enforcement of the treaty will not be hindered if the United States fails to ratify the treaty later.

Jules Cambon of the French delegation, presided over the council's session in the absence of Foreign Minister Pichot. The next meeting will be held on Monday.

NO CHANGE IN THE SACO-Lowell STRIKE

The striking Saco-Lowell employees did not meet today, but will gather in Grafton hall, Merrimack street, tomorrow morning. Hereafter meetings will be held every other day. Their pickets still continue to do duty at the shop gates and the union leaders claim that little by little the employees remaining at work are coming out to join their brothers.

Officials of the company said today that the plant would not close, but would continue limited production as best it could. "The action of the men in leaving their work came as a great surprise to the company," said one of the officers, "and we cannot believe that the strike accurately reflects the feelings of the individual employee. They have been unwise advised by outsiders. The shop has always been very willing to meet the men on a co-operative basis and had every reason to believe that an atmosphere of harmony had been created because of this."

Business Agent McCabe and Organizer Larkin of the International Union still are in Lowell and will conduct tomorrow morning's meeting.

Grants Injunction Restraining Officials From Enforcing War Time Dry Act.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.—Beer of 2.75 per cent alcoholic content was declared to be non-intoxicating in a decision handed down today by Judge John Q. Pollock, of the United States District court, in which he granted a temporary injunction restraining United States District Attorney Hensley and Internal Revenue Collector Moore from enforcing the war-time prohibition act against St. Louis brewers.

B. U. COMES WITH BAND TO PLAY TEXTILE

The big Boston university football team, headed by the R.O.T.C. band of the college, invaded the Textile school campus this afternoon to do battle with the husky eleven at the Monday street institution. Textile faced its longest foe of the season, New Hampshire State notwithstanding. The scholastic demands of B. U. have tended to keep its team's schedule down to a limited number of games, but its victory over Rhode Island State and the great battle against the Connecticut Aggies, with seven regulars out of the lineup, stamp it as a powerful combination.

Coach Hudson put his best line and backfield on to the field, with Marble calling the signals from the quarterback position. Although not a Saturday game, a large crowd was on hand long before the first whistle sounded. The Boston band paraded up and down the field prior to the game and played during the perils.

68 TAKE EXAMINATION FOR FIREMEN

Sixty-eight applicants took an examination for firemen's positions in the service of the city of Lowell at city hall this morning, the largest number on record to take an examination at one time. The examination was conducted by the civil service commission and the examiners were Miss Jeanette Dooley and Miss Fannie Franklin. The session started at 3 o'clock and continued until after noon. Both the councilmanic and aldermanic chambers were used.

The weekly chauffeurs' examination was held in the old committee room adjoining the councilmanic chamber and 11 applicants were on hand to go through the paces under the direction of Examiner Hubbell of the state highway commission.

Fires Cause Heavy Damage at Sing Sing and Leavenworth

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Nov. 21.—Fire which broke out last night in the prison exchange building at the federal disciplinary barracks here, at a late hour, had destroyed the exchange building and spread to the wooden eminences near the large new cell house. The flames were spreading rapidly and efforts to check them failed.

OSSINING, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, seriously damaged three buildings in the Sing Sing prison yard early today. Nearly all the prisoners were in the yard when the fire broke out. Heavy guards were immediately placed at all gates and along the walls to prevent a rush for "safety." An eight inch water main supplying the prison was cut yesterday, making the water supply inadequate. "Somebody undoubtedly took advantage of this," declared Acting Warden J. W. Evans.

Mrs. Sprout Held For Grand Jury Under $2500 Bonds

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Marion E. Sprout of Lowell, who was defeated as a candidate for lieutenant governor on the socialist ticket at the last state election, was ordered held for the grand jury under $2500 bonds by the municipal court today, on charges of promoting anarchy. Mrs. Sprout is already under an indictment on similar charges. It is alleged that while at liberty on bonds, she distributed radical literature and otherwise violated the anti-anarchy act.

HIGH SCHOOL NINES AT SPALDING PARK

Lowell high school's football eleven lined up against Puncard high this afternoon at Spalding park in one of the most important games of the season. Puncard high has put up an exceptionally strong game this season, but on the other hand, the Lowell delegation was looking forward to victory owing to the fight which it put up against Haverhill high, one of the state leaders, last Saturday. This afternoon's game was called at 2:15 and there was a fair-sized crowd of students on the sidelines.

President Will Take Up Subject of Versailles Pact When Congress Meets

Meanwhile Democratic Leaders Will Attempt To Bring About Compromise

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Bituminous coal mine operators served what was practically an ultimatum on the coal miners' representatives here today, telling them that the offer yesterday of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent day wage increases was the utmost that could be given. The miners went into a conference immediately to consider the offer.

SUPERIOR COURT CIVIL SESSION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—President Wilson will take up the whole subject of the treaty of Versailles in his message to congress December 1, it was stated officially today at the White House. Until then, he will have nothing to say concerning the senate's action in rejecting the treaty.

Before congress convenes, it was said, administration senators will confer and it is possible that the mild reservationists on the republican side will participate with a view to working out an acceptable compromise on reservations.

Regardless of who is selected to succeed the late Senator Martin as democratic leader in the senate, there will be no change in the leadership in the treaty fight, it was said at the White House. President

ATTORNEY GENERAL AS GRAND JURY'S COUNSEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Gov. Smith has been asked by the extraordinary grand jury which initiated an investigation of the municipal administration to designate the attorney general as counsel to the jurors in continuing the inquiry.

Announcement of the action taken by the jury was contained in a presentation filed yesterday with Justice Bartlow S. Weeks. It was explained that the jury had been inspired in its investigation "by reasonable grounds of belief that public officials had been guilty of wilful and corrupt misconduct in office." The inquiry has been hampered, the presentation said, by lack of proper legal counsel.

Early in its survey of municipal offices and departments the jury came into conflict with District Attorney Swann and refused to be guided by his advice. The governor was asked at that time to appoint counsel but no action was taken by him.

The presentation said that Mayor Hylan's charges of a conspiracy between the Interborough Rapid Transit company and its employees to foment the strike last August could not be determined properly without a thorough investigation of "the origin and causative processes for those charges."

After the document had been read and Justice Weeks had instructed the jurors as to what constituted misconduct in office, Mr. Swann declared he was perfectly willing to give the jury all the help in his power and that he would assign one or three of his assistants to the work.

He was interrupted by Justice Weeks with the suggestion that evidence relating to an alleged milk trust should be presented to the jury. Mr. Swann demurred and said he would not like to present to the jury as it is now composed anything except facts bearing upon corruption in city or county offices. He insisted these charges should be disposed of first and offered personally to waive immunity and answer any questions the jury might see fit to ask.

COAL COMMISSION TO END FUEL FAMINE

BY BASIL M. MANLY.

Former Joint Chairman United States War Labor Board

WASHINGTON, Nov.—The negotiations now taking place between the miners and operators may settle the strike, but they will not settle the coal problem.

Whatever increase in wages the miners may get or however his hours of labor may be shortened, there will be no real improvement in the situation until the fundamental evils of the industry are eradicated.

Cheap coal with good working conditions and fair profits is what the public wants. But the public cannot get cheap coal by the kind of bargaining and haggling that is now going on in the conference between the operators and the miners. Cheap coal can come only as the result of a radical change in the bituminous coal industry.

The fundamental evils of the coal mining industry are:

1. Irregular operation due principally to inadequate car supply which results in meager annual incomes for the miners, even with a fairly high daily wage, and an inadequate supply of coal to meet the nation's needs.

2. Appalling waste—estimated by the United States geological survey at 50 per cent—of the nation's greatest natural resource.

3. Exorbitant profits for coal companies whose mines are fortunately located, with adequate coal cars.

It has been estimated that with a scientific system of production and distribution the price of coal could be cut almost in half and still pay the operators a fair margin of profit, and give the miners larger incomes and better working conditions than they now enjoy.

A properly constituted coal commission, with full power to compel testimony and the production of books and papers and authority to draft legislation, could in three months formulate a program which would effect this saving.

The coal commission ought not to be a big commission; it ought not to be a political commission; it ought not to be a partisan commission. It ought to be a commission responsible to the public, with proper protection of the interests of operators and miners.

The details of how this commission should be composed do not matter, but the choice of a chairman does matter.

Every marked advance in our civilization can be traced to the vision, brain and courage of some one strong man.

There is only one man in the United States whose ability, experience and standing qualify him to perform this great public service. That man is Judge Brandeis of the United States supreme court.

Ten years ago Judge Brandeis as attorney for the people before the interstate commerce commission exposed the inefficiency and waste of the railroads and by the pressure of public opinion forced the railroads to adopt new and better methods of operation and management.

Today every candid railroad official will admit that without the improvements which were effected as the result of the Brandeis campaign, the American railroads would have totally collapsed under the heavy strain of war traffic.

There is no reason why a justice of the supreme court should not be called upon to perform such a great public service. Great Britain did not hesitate to call upon Justice Sankey to head her coal commission when the industrial life of England was threatened.

There is no case which will come before the supreme court during the next six months as important as the great case—the people vs. the coal industry.

AUTOCRACY PARADISE TO BOLSHEVIK REGIME

U. S. DEAD HERE FROM RUSSIA

NEW YORK—Impressive martial ceremonies marked the return of 113 bodies of American soldiers who died in Russia. One is shown being brought into a mortuary chapel to await disposition by relatives.

The members of the chief of the committee sat before a cage with wooden bars reaching to the ceiling. The prisoners were marched through the cage to be reviled and sentenced to death. Afterward they were stripped and carried off to the slaughter house.

Another committee conducted its proceedings in the open air in a beautiful garden. The judges sprawled over a table and pronounced death sentences wholesale, drinking champagne in the intervals.

ATTY. GEN. PALMER ON VERGE OF BREAKDOWN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Attorney General Palmer was reported yesterday on the verge of a nervous breakdown and under orders from his physician to get away from work and take all the rest he needs.

Mr. Palmer's physician has told him, it was said at the department of justice, that "unless he quits work for more than a week, he would not be responsible for the consequences." It was explained, however, that this was not to be taken to mean that he was in a serious condition.

Mr. Palmer had expected to attend a cost of living meeting of prosecuting attorneys at Columbus, O., Saturday but his physician told him not to go. There was no statement as to when or where he would go for a rest.

SALE OF PIANOS AND PIANO PLAYERS

The sale of pianos and piano players now being held at Wartell's Music store at 110 Merrimack street, is one that is attracting the attention of almost every music lover in the city. The sale is under the able supervision of Mr. Charles F. Shaw, manager of this very important department. Mr. Shaw's ability and experience in the piano line is a well known fact as he has been in this business for a great many years. His long experience in this line is a double assurance of square dealing and perfect satisfaction. Mr. Shaw held a very successful sale here in the city only a few years ago so that his direction of another sale at this time cannot mean that he is offering some unusually good values at remarkably low prices. Mr. Shaw's expert knowledge is an important factor when one considers the purchase of a piano.

RADIUM BURN

MARKS THIEF

N.E.A. Special to The Sun

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Officials of the University of Pennsylvania hospital are seeking the thief who stole a tiny tube containing $6000 worth of radium. Deep burns, which develop a few days after exposure to radium rays, will more than sufficiently punish the culprit in any case.

The tube is one of six owned by the hospital. Four of them are insured. The tube which was lost was not insured.

Capt. Raymond Adams, crippled by an accident while in training camp, found the missing tube in a pathway on the hospital grounds and returned it after carrying it for a few minutes in a vest pocket.

He is suffering from painful irritation of the deep tissues of his body as a result.

The tube disappeared after it had been used in treating a cancer patient. In the search for it, several patients were examined with an X-ray, as the tube is small enough to be swallowed, and the hospital was searched by means of an electroscope, a delicate instrument containing gold leaf which shrivels in the presence of radium.

Alice Verlet Drawn from actual phonograph

Why Wednesday's audience at Associate Hall was so completely mystified. Alice Verlet was inside the phonograph in all excepting physical presence

At first reading, the story of the New Edison's performance last Wednesday night at Associate Hall seems fraught with mystery.

But the explanation is simple enough.

First, get a picture of what happened. Miss Verlet sang Caro Nome. She stopped after the first few lines, but her voice flowed on without a break. No one even noticed she had stopped—until some eyes, keener than the rest, saw her lips were still. It was only then that realization dawned. The audience found it had been listening to the New Edison.*

To every ear, the two voices, living and RE-CREATED, had been without a shade of difference.

That was what so mystified the audience. They had expected the RE-CREATED art to betray its phonographic origin. It was a step too advanced for their comprehension that this instrument should be all that Miss Verlet is, excepting her physical presence.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

This extraordinary proof is the only means through which people learn to appreciate the true powers of the New Edison. If you are interested in music, it is indeed unfortunate that you were not present.

*The instrument used in Wednesday's Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $301.50 (in Canada $431.00). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

MASQUERADE AND CHARACTER PARTY

The first masquerade and character party under the auspices of the J. L. Chalifoux Mutual Benefit association was held last evening in Lincoln hall and the affair was a huge success in every sense of the word. The attendance was large, the concert numbers by the orchestra were very enjoyable, the character march was pleasing and the refreshments served during intermission were most delectable.

In the early part of the evening an excellent musical program was given by Markham's orchestra, and later the character march was started, over a hundred couples taking part. At the close of the march suitable prizes were awarded to the winners, who were announced as follows:

Most original costume, Miss Esther McIsaac, a Pierrot dancer; and most original man, Louis G. Cote, an Indian warrior. The prizes in the most grotesque group were accorded the following: First, Alcide J. Page, a tramp; Katherine Rafferty. Suitable prizes were accorded the judges' selections during the intermission.

The judges of the event were Miss

and Simandy, a colored lady; Miss Lucie Blouin-Hersell, Miss Anna Morris and Mrs. C. D. A. Grasse.

At the close of the march general dancing was started and continued until a reasonable hour. Among the guests of the evening were Mayor and Perry D. Thompson, Miss Margaret Fields and John Meehan, leading lady and man at the Lowell Opera House. The success of the evening was due to the following officers:

Floor director, Alvah Johnson; assistant floor director, Miss Jeanette Cote; chief aids, Miss Grace W. Burns and Joseph H. Martin and aids, Lester Robinson and the Misses Florence Nickels, Katherine Donohoe, Mac Bradley, Alice Beaumer, Margaret Wilcox and Josephine O'Brien.

CHINESE NIGHT AT PASTOR'S HOUSE

As a means of creating interest in the foreign missionary work of the First Congregational church, especially as it is being carried on in China by Rev. and Mrs. Otto Reumann, commissioned as resident Chinese missionaries from this church, the young people were brought in touch with real Chinese atmosphere Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Chauncy P. Hawking in Fairmount street.

A Chinese home of glass, with hangings, Chinese lights and costumes, ivories, wall decorations and incense was reproduced in the spacious living room. No chairs were visible and each guest sat upon her own cushion, brought for just that purpose. Chop suey, eaten with chop sticks and other Chinese dishes added to the reality of the scene.

A series of prepared talks were given by women of the church interested in the event and the foreign missionary work. The program was as follows:

A Chinese School, Mrs. Walter Muzzey.
A Class in Chinese Characters, Miss Helen Thomas.
Some Chinese Customs, Mrs. Augusta Sarro.
A Chinese Wedding, Mrs. Harry Kershaw.
A Chinese Mother, Mrs. Frank Morse.
Chinese Songs, Miss Lillian Powers.
How the Chinese Worship, Mrs. Wesley Goodwin.
Foo Chow, Our Own Mission, Miss Marion McKnight.
Chinese Stories, Mrs. Hawkins.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL OPPOSED

Opposition to the location of a silk factory in this city by a Brooklyn, N. Y., concern on the grounds that it is seeking a Lowell plant to evade the settlement of labor difficulties in Amsterdam, Sidney and Brooklyn, N. Y., was expressed by the Lowell Trades and Labor council at its meeting last evening. A committee was appointed to meet Secretary John J. O'Rourke of the board of trade, who was in conference with a representative of the concern in question Wednesday, to explain to him the reasons why local labor men are opposed to the coming of the factory here.

It was voted to oppose the so-called anti-strike law which is to come up at the special session of the legislature and the secretary was instructed to write to the local representatives and senators to this effect.

Opposition was also recorded to the Cummins bill and the Esch bill which hold labor organizations liable to the extent of the funds they have on hand.

Communications from Congressman Rogers and Senator Lodge were read and placed on file.

All the swallow tribe are found in every part of Great Britain, including the Shetlands, except the swift, which is not found in those islands.

For the man who must be on his feet all day this foot form or nature shape will provide real shoe comfort.

It comes in vic kid, a particularly soft leather that has a fine finish.

Be sure to get real Resinol

If you want to get rid of eczema, pimplies, or other distressing skin eruption, you will accept no "substitute" for Resinol. Preparations similar in name or appearance are not "just the same as Resinol." Although a few unscrupulous dealers may offer them as or for Resinol, they are often crudely made, of little healing power, and some may even be dangerous to use. Buy in the original blue package.

Article on Fatigue and Health Questions Answered

The following is another in the series of "health letters" prepared by the U. S. Public Health service, and deals with fatigue, questions and answers:

Fatigue is a sign that the body becomes strained and that if work is continued injury may result.

This injury may not be apparent immediately, but will show itself in a weakened heart or nervous prostration later on.

It results from two causes: The using up of organic forces or energy, and the wear and tear of the organs which are overworked, so that matter and energy are consumed while restitution does not keep pace with the work.

It has been found that accidents are more liable to happen if employees are overworked, and that a person cannot do efficient work if he is fatigued.

Laboratory studies with mice have shown that these animals can be made much more susceptible to disease germs than ordinarily by making the animals run a treadmill. The fatigue lowers their resistance to disease. Here is a lesson which many of us have not learned.

Answered

Q. A physician lecturer said that tuberculosis cannot be prevented. Is that true why is tuberculosis called a preventable disease?

A. Scientifically speaking he is right, but while infection with tubercle bacilli apparently cannot be prevented, the development of the disease can. Infection with tubercle bacilli is not the same as tuberculosis. Good food, fresh air, sufficient rest and recreation—these do much to prevent the disease.

Q. If two vaccinations against smallpox have not taken, should a child be vaccinated a third time?

A. The child is probably not protected so that another attempt should be made to produce successful take.

Q. What is pellagra?

A. A disease characterized by a painful eruption of the skin, and caused by faulty diet.

Q. Is there any danger from poison in cold pack foods?

A. Some, but it can be overcome by cooking the food before serving.

Q. How much sleep should a man 25 years old get?

A. Eight hours work; eight hours recreation; eight hours sleep is a good rule.

Q. In purifying drinking water with chlorine what proportion is used?

A. This varies, depending on the quality of water. Roughly 15 pounds of good "chloride of lime" will disinfect a million gallons of water. When liquid chlorine is used the average dose is 1 part to 2 million parts of water.

POLITICIANS BLAMED FOR HIGH FARES

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 21.—That politicians are to a degree responsible for the high fares now being paid by those using the trolley car was the statement made by Charles G. Washburn, chairman of the special street railway commission, when he spoke yesterday before the legislative committee on street railways.

"Mayors of cities served by the roads have tried to make a record during their administrations," he said, "with the result that municipalities have preyed upon the roads and stripped them of all the feathers they could. Now the lines are in a bankrupt condition."

Mr. Washburn intimated that the "pols" are not interested in keeping the lines in serviceable condition and that all they care about is to see to it that while their terms of office are running on they may pose as champions of the people by attacking the companies.

He believed it might be a good thing for all concerned, while discussion is going on on the present problem, if all the street cars in the state ceased operation so that everybody might be impressed by the necessity of proper transportation service.

"For years," he went on, "the fares charged by the companies have been too low. By that I mean the fares charged up to within a few years ago. The dollar has shrunk in value by more than 50 per cent. As a result the lines have been trying to make five cents do the work of ten or fifteen."

As an illustration of the value now received by the traveling public for the fares they pay, Mr. Washburn referred to the days when as a student at Harvard he traveled between Cambridge and Boston.

"It was a horse car we rode in," he said. "It was lighted with kerosene lamps and had no heating apparatus. Mornings when the temperature would be around zero we would keep our feet

HOPED STRIKE WOULD
BRING REVOLUTION

LONDON.—(By the Associated Press)—The speedy and peaceful settlement of the British railway strike was a sore disappointment to Russian Bolsheviks. They hoped that it would develop into open revolution. That was shown by a wireless message that was transmitted from Petrograd "with compliments to the British railway men," it stated.

"We, the railwaymen of Red Petrograd have heard the news of your general strike with joy and enthusiasm. You have broken the chains of civil peace. You have declared war on your government. You must pass from a general strike to an armed rising. In order to improve your economic position you must first destroy the present imperialist order of things and substitute for it a government of workers and peasants. Do not allow the leaders of the old trade union school to get at the head of the movement as they will betray you at the decisive moment. Victory is yours if you fight to the end."

VOCES FOR GOOD WILL OF NATIONS

It must hath charms to soothe the turbulent international breast. Miss Nocuko Hara, celebrated Japanese prima donna, may do more with her voice than diplomats are doing with their pens, for she has come to the United States to sing a better entente between this country and her native land.

MARRY THE GIRL?"

LONDON.—(By the Associated Press)—Domestic servants affiliated with the National Federation of Women Workers are agitating for a standardized wage scale and the union's support of a program for enforcing improved conditions of service.

The proposals provide a minimum a year; set meal times, a half-hour for breakfast, one hour for dinner and a half-hour for tea; better sleeping accommodations; two hours free each day and a half-day addition each week; a 12-hour day, including time off; and 14 days' vacation each year with full board and wages.

One London newspaper in publishing these demands printed above them this caption: "Why Not Marry the Girl?"

STUDENTS STRIKE

Quit College When 20 Are Arrested For Hazing

of Franklin & Marshall college, charged with hazing Charles Dutcher, a freshman, a week ago were held for court at a meeting before a local magistrate last night. Twenty men were under arrest, but Dutcher was unable to identify three of his alleged assailants. The 17 men, many of them members of prominent families, each were placed under $200 bail.

Conditions at the college continue to be enshrouded in uncertainty. Late yesterday the entire student body

voted unanimously to strike today,

from attending classes until the suspended students are reinstated.

Another development yesterday was the decision by members of the F. and

M. football team to strike. It is probable that the annual "letter" game with Gettysburg will be called off because of the strike.

Asked last night whether the board of directors would stand by its decision in suspending the students, Dr.

H. H. Apple, president of the institution, said: "That is our decision and further than that I have nothing to say."

WELCOME HOME TO WAR HEROES

Lowell Lodge of Elks
Stages Big Reception in Memorial Hall

Banquet, Cabaret and Addresses Features of Evening's Program

Staid old Memorial hall, rich in its memories of stirring activities of days that have gone, lost its atmosphere of the past and became a thronging, vibrating scene of the present
when Lowell Lodge No. 87, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, held its welcome home reception to soldier and cavil brothers last evening.

Eighty-two members who wore the uniform of the army, navy or marine corps in the recent world conflict were honored by their brother "Bills" in a manner that left no doubt of sincerity
and if the ghosts of Appomattox could have looked down from the walls of the hall, they undoubtedly would have been thrilled by the scene before them even more than were they in the stirring days of the sixties.

A banquet, speechnaking, music, good fellowship and a cabaret which

WILLIAM H. MAHAN,
Exalted Ruler

for liveliness has been seldom approached in Lowell and certainly never in the chaste confines of Memorial hall, went to make up the evening's program.

A large number of the service men appeared in uniform, the hall was a patriotic banner of American flags among which nestled luxuriant wreaths of welcome, softly-shaded candles adorned the speakers' table and gaily colored paper hats covered the heads of the 450
Elks that were present. Decorator Charles F. Young was responsible for the excellent setting.

And then toward the end of the evening, just as a mark of appreciation
the service men were presented gold card cases by their brothers. It was one of the happiest and liveliest demonstrations that the Elks have ever staged in Lowell.

It was nearly 8 o'clock when the speakers of the evening marched to the head table, followed by the civilian members. And finally after a brief interval, came the doughty veterans of the Lodge, carrying the country's standard at their head and marching in perfect unison to tables reserved for them, while the Elks' orchestra, supplemented and augmented by the tattoo
of countless wooden souvenir hammers, greeted them with a stirring march.

And then came the signal for three cheers for the service men and the evening's baritope was on.

Caterer Martin Lydon again came in the limelight by the excellence of his turkey dinner and commendation for his work featured the first phase of

pointed district deputy grand exalted ruler for this district, was the toastmaster of the evening and he filled the position with becoming grace. Following the banquet, whose courses were intermingled with cabaret features,
Mr. Farley rapped to order, told of the purposes of the gathering in a few well chosen words in which he expressed the joy of the Lodge to welcome home its service men and asked that those present set apart a minute from the evening's festivity in memory of the heroes who are not to return.

Representative Martin Hayes
He then introduced Martin Hayes of Boston, a former member of the state senate but now in the house of representatives. Representative Hayes proved a strong speaker with the knack of sending across his message
with a punch.

"We have enemies surrounding us
here at home just as surely as you
boys had enemies abroad," he said.
"There is hardly a community in this country but where there are nests of those unfaithful to the cause for which you fought. It's the duty of the American Legion to continue the fight against the enemies at home."

"We're not a nation of people who
try to remember who our great-grandfathers were. There are only a few shipsloads of immigrants and a few trips across the ocean separating any of us as far as our ancestry goes. But there is a job ahead of you men, the job of knocking out the hyphen. There is no room in this country for the hyphenated citizen. You fellows have a real fight on your hands but you have demonstrated that you know how to fight."

"I suppose you'll be told until the day that you 'kick off' that this country is yours, but it isn't. I believe that you should be the leaders of the country, but the people of the United States
don't believe in military dictation."

LOWELL LEADS INFANT MORTALITY RATE

Lowell led the country in her infant mortality rate for the week ending Nov. 15, according to figures received at the office of the board of health today from the national census bureau. This city's rate was 33.3. New Haven was second with 25.9 and Cambridge third with 21.7. Fall River, usually among the leaders, was 11th on the list. With 19.4, San Francisco was low with 4.6, and the average rate was 13.3. New York's rate was 11.3; Boston 13.4; Philadelphia 13.5 and Chicago 14.1. Eight other cities had a higher general death rate than Lowell.

Welcome Home

They remember what happened to Germany. And you showed what you thought of this matter at your first national convention last week.

"You've got to stamp out the idea that one class of this country can dominate it to the detriment of others. It should be a case of all for one and one for all. There are spots in the United States that must be healed and the American Legion is the best healer that I know."

District Attorney Tufts

In introducing District Attorney Nathaniel A. Tufts, Toastmaster Farley said that A. Tufts had gained the reputation on the football field of being one of the squarest referees in the game. No higher compliment could be paid him.

The district attorney was given a rousing reception. He said that our thanks to the service men won't amount to much unless we show it in a concrete form. And the best way of showing it, he said, was to carry on the work they started. He told of the outrage in Centralia, Washington, on Armistice day, when one of his acquaintances was shot down.

"The state of Washington may seem far off to you people, but right here in Lowell each week there is held a meeting of anarchists planning to do the same thing to you boys that was done to Grimes and the other veterans in Centralia.

"We need the united action of every man, woman and child who believes in that emblem which surrounds this hall. There is a great work to be done in stamping out the undesirable element in this country and the Elks constitute the logical order to carry on this fight."

Senator John E. Beck

Senator John E. Beck of Chelsea, former mayor of that city, was also enthusiastically received and his address was a real gem of patriotic inspiration. He told of the welcome home celebration held in Chelsea on Armistice day and said that the most impressive feature of the parade held in connection with the affair was the appearance of the women of the city, the mothers and sweethearts and sisters who had made untold sacrifices.

He cited examples of the patriotism of womanhood in the war and said that the Stars and Stripes would always remain supreme while that spirit prevailed.

The selected service law and its successful administration was another glorious demonstration of the country's loyalty in time of stress, said Senator Beck. He suggested that the country remember the men of the world war, both living and dead, by special exercises.

Private John Rogers

Congressman John Jacob Rogers was introduced by the toastmaster as "Private John Jacob Rogers" and the introduction made a decided hit. Rarely has the congressman been given a more prolonged or hearty reception than that which was accorded him last evening. It was fully five minutes before the tumult ceased and he was able to speak.

"Congress got word that the Elks of Lowell were going to hold a big meeting tonight," said Mr. Rogers, "so I kindly adjourned at two minutes past four yesterday afternoon for 10 days.

"One of the speakers has referred to Victor Berger, the representative who has lost his seat in congress. I want to tell you right here that just so often

Father opposed son at the Y.M.C.A. last night and the chip of the old block came out ahead. It was the annual father-and-son event and produced over $1,000. The money, a part of which will be used in the campaign of relief, will be used to help the Filipinos. The boys in every sport except baseball and the youngsters were so chagrined because of that setback that the joy of winning all the other games was somewhat dampened.

The basketball contest went to the boys' side. The fathers who played were W. E. Hall, Ray Dean, Ned Preston, Henry Lisselle and Louis Browning. The boys were Johnny Preston, Ned Hall, Ray Dean, David Browning and Larry Lisselle. But in the great national game of baseball the boys emerged, stunning defeat. Ned's older son had never launched such a vicious attack as he did on the fathers. The same five men who played basketball also lined up for baseball, with the addition of Jas. Walsh, Otto Butler, Dr. N. S. Phillips, L. B. Carpenter and Dr. R. D. Blanchard. The sons were Howard, Walsh, Ralph, Ruth, Charles, Phillips, Clark, Blanchard and Warner Carpenter.

A Simple Way to Get the Benefit of the Best Senna

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint contains the finest Egyptian Senna, as recommended by the U.S.P.

A GREAT many people, habitually constipated, find relief by chewing senna leaves or brewing them into a "tea" and drinking it. They will be glad to know that they can obtain senna already brewed, at no greater expense and in a much more convenient and agreeable form.

The chief laxative constituent of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint is Egyptian senna (Cassia acutifolia) gathered in the Egyptian Sudan. This grade is seldom sold at retail. It is however, recognized as first in the U.S. Pharmacopeia because of its freedom from griping and its cleaner action on the intestines, and because it does not lose its effect after repeated use.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 311 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

WAS BORN IN LOWELL

Salvation Army National Field Secretary Coming Here Tomorrow

Known to many residents of Lowell as a Lieutenant in the local Salvation Army Corps, in which he served for several years in the early 80's and himself a Lowell lad, born and reared

COL. ALEXANDER A. M. DAMON

In the City of Spindles, Col. Alexander A. M. Damon, national field secretary of the Salvation Army of America, will revisit the city of his birth tomorrow as the guest of Adjutant Klop-sig, commander of the "Sallies" in this city.

Col. Damon joined the army when still a youth, and has spent his life in the service of this great organization which helped to bring sunshine and happiness to the boys who went overseas to do or die. At the time of his appointment to the rank of commissioned officer he was the youngest man in the country to be holding the rank.

He will give his celebrated stereopticon lecture: "In Darkest America" at the Salvation Army hall on Jackson street tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock and will explain how the army achieved its remarkable success during the months of the great conflict.

On Sunday morning he will make an address at the Highland Congregational church and in the evening will be heard at the Calvary Baptist church. His final appearance will be at the army hall, where he will speak Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock.

SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT

An enjoyable supper and entertainment was held at the Swedish Lutheran church last evening and a large number of the congregation—including both young folks and "grown ups"—attended the event which proved one of the most successful of its kind. The entertainment program follows: Organ selections, Miss Florence Gilligan; solo, Herbert Ashton; quartet selections, Edward Smith and family; selections by the choir; solo, Miss Isa Smith; duet, Messrs. Poole and Anton; readings, Miss Florence Tongberg; piano solos, Miss Mildred Anderson; duet, Mr. Poole and Miss Helen Smith.

SENTENCED TO THE LYMAN SCHOOL

Thirteen-year-old Frank Portado, the youthful burglar who confessed to the police last Friday that he had stolen jewelry valued at $800 from the pawn shop of William H. Hawes on Central street because he wanted money to "see the world," was today sentenced to the Lyman school in juvenile court.

Portado, according to his admissions, broke into the store Thursday afternoon and finding the safe unlocked, appropriated rings, watches, brooches and other jewelry. He hid the loot in a stone wall adjoining Fort Hill park and after grilling by the police guided Lieut. Maher and Sergt. Dwyer to his treasure cache, where all the articles were found intact.

Coal Shortage Menaces Additional Industries and Threatens Food Supply

Extensive Shutdowns During the Next Ten Days Are Predicted

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The daily increasing coal shortage has begun to menace additional industries and threaten slightly the nation's food supply, with the further prospect of a sweeping curtailment of passenger traffic within 24 hours.

As the bituminous coal miners counted out three weeks of illness it became known, through a statement here today by the regional coal committee that the big Chicago packing plants "have about two weeks' supply of coal left" and that "when they have used that the committee will not be able to release any coal to them."

The immediate future of the steel industry today was causing concern, according to one Pennsylvania manufacturer, and in the Chicago district the Corn Products Co., at Argo, Ill., announced suspension. Its other plant at Pekin, Ill., both having a capacity of 100,000 bushels of corn a day, already having been closed. The regional coal committee indicated it expected extensive shutdowns during the next 10 days unless production on a large scale was resumed.

Walter D. Hines, federal director general of railroads, announced after his two-day conference with regional directors, that he would lay the facts of the coal situation before the cabinet so that he might be relieved of any personal responsibility for curtailment of industry.

In the general situation as regards the mines themselves but slight changes were apparent. They did not point to increased production.

Governors of all states with bituminous mines today had telegrams from Governor Harding of Iowa, suggesting concerted action to take over the mines and grant the workers a substantial increase pending the results of the joint wage conference at Washington.

In Colorado, where a second strike has been ordered, a court order restraining the district officials from putting it into effect, was in force. It was obtained by Victor E. Keyes, state attorney general, who based his plea on state industrial commission law, requiring 30 days' notice of a strike.

New strikes in the New River field of West Virginia were reported spreading.

The week's supply ration for Chicago and the northwestern region, which

Coal Shortage Closes Steel Mills

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Mills of the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, forming the second largest steel producing region in the country, today faced possibility of closing on account of coal shortage, following orders by D. T. Murray, local fuel director, cutting off supplies to all factories.

Coal to Essential Consumers

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—The Pittsburgh district fuel distributing committee of the United States Railroad administration proceeded on government orders today to supply coal to "essential" consumers only. Officials of industrial concerns not classed as essential, viewed the new order with apprehension.

Conflicting opinions came today from various persons interested in the situation on the question of a possible coal shortage here. Members of the fuel committee said there was no immediate danger of a shortage, but in industrial circles it was declared that if mines in the district were not soon reopened, many industries would feel the effects of a fuel famine.

COLLEGE PROFESSORS

Harvard university is conducting a campaign for an endowment fund under which it can make a 50 per cent increase in the pay of its teaching staff. It would be a great source of security to our government if all college professors received sufficient compensation for their services to render it unnecessary for them to accept large bonuses from outside organizations or foreign governments for literary or propaganda work which is in some cases directly opposed to the best interests of the United States. When it appears that some professors of our American colleges are in the pay of foreign governments to promote the standing and good repute of other nations at the expense of the United States, the situation is one that cannot be overlooked. It is unfortunately true that college professors, like the school teachers, have suffered greatly from the high cost of living; but happily the cases are comparatively rare in which public school teachers show any unpatriotic trait as a result of unfair treatment. Not so, however, with the college professors. Many of them from prominent colleges have been preaching economic doctrines dangerously near the line of anarchism and certainly favorable to socialism. But some misguided clergymen have been equally guilty in this respect until the danger of their preaching became apparent and they were silenced by their congregations.

Whether college professors be paid from endowment funds or otherwise, it is highly desirable that they receive reasonable remuneration for their services and that they be restrained from engaging in any form of propaganda work calculated to weaken our government or undermine respect for lawfully constituted authority. It was Mr. Hoover who first pointed out the danger of having college professors line up with the radicals of the country if they did not receive sufficient pay for their services to support them in comfortable circumstances. Some colleges have averted the danger by liberal increases to their teaching force but others have conspicuously failed. It is true, however, that nearly all the colleges have restricted the utterances of their professors within the limits of patriotism, so that if any of the latter wishes to preach a doctrine that would reflect upon the institution by which he is employed, he will have to resign. It is eminently right and proper that a college may decline to be put in a false light by the erratic speeches or writings of any member of its faculty.

FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE

President Wilson has appointed a new industrial conference not divided on sectional lines, but made up of one body of men eminently fit to devise a plan for the promotion of industrial peace.

The first conference split up on a mere technicality before it entered upon its real program. That danger will be avoided in the second attempt, which has no conflicting elements.

During the past few months it seems that the air has been cleared regarding collective bargaining and some other questions upon which labor and capital have been divided in the past. There is ample ground upon which both can unite for their mutual benefit, if the extremists on either side will only keep to the rear.

It is high time that some reasonable construction should be put upon what we have been calling industrial democracy. Is it something that will serve the interests of employer and employee, or that will rather serve the radicals in their fixed opposition to all the interests of capital? There are many industries throughout the country successfully operated on a profit-sharing plan, and a movement in this direction has seldom failed to give the employees a more lively interest in the work in which they are engaged. The chief trouble seems to be that when any step of this kind is taken, it is rendered impracticable by the demands of radicals who want to take over the employer's business and deprive him of the fruits of his industry and equally rob all those who have invested their money in the enterprise.

There have been so many schemes of this kind proposed that the industrial conference to assemble at Washington may do well to canvass them thoroughly with a view to recommending a plan that may be acceptable alike to employer and employee.

tions awaiting settlement by any such conference is that of preventing labor strikes and increasing production. At a recent meeting of the American Mining congress a proposition was made for an industrial armistice of one year, during which all labor troubles would be settled by arbitration. If such an arrangement could be made it would be a great boon for this country and would so increase production that prosperity and a continuation of industrial peace would undoubtedly follow.

CALLED THE BLUFF

The American Legion by its action in convention, gave congress an indication of its attitude in reference to the various measures and propositions now before congress for the benefit of the soldiers. These ranged from supplying them with free farms to offering them a bonus or enough to make a fair day's pay for every day spent in the service.

Through a desire to make a plausible excuse for delay, congress threw out a hint that it wished the soldiers themselves to specify what they wanted. Had they done this there would probably have been some congressional reason for not granting it. But the service men have shown the good sense not to make a demand upon the government. They respectfully declined to be placed in the position either of hold-up men or of mendicants.

They expect fair treatment by the government, but will leave congress free to put its own estimate upon the value of their services to the country. In this they are right and they have astutely called the bluff on congress on account of its evasive policy of putting the various soldier bills with the mass of others that have been pigeonholed as a result of politics. Later on, the soldiers may have something to say in reference to congressional evasion and delay not only on this but on other questions of prime importance to the nation.

Between the bonus bill and that intended to aid service men in settling upon farms the latter has met with most favor by congress as not calling for a specific outlay. But even this has been sidetracked and all the stirring appeals made by Secretary Lane have proved practically fruitless.

THE TREATY MUDDLE

The expected has happened in reference to the fate of the peace treaty in the senate. The opposition has not been able to muster enough votes to ratify the treaty with the reservations adopted and the administration has been equally powerless to secure ratification without reservations. The result is a deadlock which may be fatal to the treaty so far as this country is concerned unless the leaders of both sides come together and adopt a compromise, or unless the president should hold it up for resubmission to the senate after December 1.

We are inclined to believe that in view of the serious consequences which would follow the defeat of the treaty, a compromise will be reached on ratification with some slight modifications of the reservations. The American people want the treaty, but they are not opposed to any reasonable reservations honestly designed to protect America's interests against any possibility of domination by foreign governments.

The general public is extremely tired of the whole treaty question and is anxious to get it out of the way in some shape. To resubmit it to the senate would result in another long controversy very similar to that which the senate has gone through in the last six months at the sacrifice of valuable time which should be devoted to the great problems of reconstruction. Unless a compromise be reached the senate will be bitterly denounced for leaving the whole question of peace with Germany unsettled.

THE DICTOGRAPH

It is certainly "war to the death" against a public official when as reported, a resident of Boston has made provision in his will, that the next he has been conducting for the removal of District Attorney Pelletier of Boston, may be continued even if the complainant should happen to die before it comes to a conclusion. For two years past officials of a reform society have had a dictograph in Mr. Pelletier's office, but judging from the articles recently published on both sides, it does not seem that Mr. Pelletier has suffered from this invasion of the privacy of his office.

He threatens criminal proceedings against the parties responsible for thus entering his office, but what the next step on either side will be is not apparent. Both sides of the controversy have been published recently, showing that it is an old fight revived by the discovery of a dictograph in the district attorney's office.

The dictograph is a great instrument, but there is no more justification for its surreptitious use in a man's office or his home than there is for the concealed presence there of a detective, an interloper, or a burglar.

U. S. STAMP SCALPERS

Some conscienceless sharpers have been making money by purchasing war saving stamps at a discount and having them redeemed by the government. The loss falls upon the original purchasers. The purchasers or legitimate owners of war savings stamps need not look for purchasers who deal in stamps only for the purpose of swindling the owners. If the original purchaser wants money, the government will redeem the stamps. The process of redemption may be a little tedious, but it is better to comply with the regulations than sell the stamps at a sacrifice.

The government wants to discourage applications for redemption of the stamps as far as possible; but rather than allow sharks to trade upon the necessities of honest people, it will redeem the stamps. The government has already arrested a number of stamp scalpers and will punish them so far as the law will permit.

COAL FAMINE

Whether we shall have a coal famine depends, we presume, upon whether the operators will concede the miners' demands or whether the government can persuade the miners to return. If Fuel Commissioner Garfield could start up the mines without the strikers, he would deserve the praise of the country almost as much as did the heroes of Chateau Thierry. He says the people will get coal and that the mines will be worked. Let us hope he can make good his word. Everybody wants the miners to get justice but nobody wants to see them over-ride the government and the people.

THOSE GERMAN SHIPS

The supreme council in Paris has discussed without decision the status of the Imperator and other German ships now held by the United States. Here we have a chance to see how the machinery of the League of Nations applied to settling international disputes will work.—Boston Globe.

England has been after the German ships held in this country and the decision at Washington that she is to get the Imperator is no surprise.

What we need here is a state commission to investigate all strikes and report the causes to the public. That would show on which side the blame lay. In such conflicts the statements made by the opposing sides are contradictory and so far from both being true, they are usually a misrepresentation of the actual facts. The state is not doing its duty in such matters. The present board of conciliation and arbitration is of very little use and might as well be abolished.

The number of nominees for municipal offices are so few that every voter can easily ascertain the eligibility and standing of each and thus be able to reject the less desirable and give the city the service of the best. Men who are honest and reliable, faithful and competent are the ones to be preferred. Experience without honesty should not be considered in selecting public servants.

It is hoped that the spells of prohibition in Rhode Island will last long enough to allow the inebriates to sober off before the dry law is again declared unconstitutional. There has been such an exhibition of hopping on and off the water wagon that it is hard to tell just how little Rhode stands at present and we doubt whether she knows herself.

SEEN AND HEARD

There are times when a fellow likes to be alone, but on a dark, lonesome road late at night isn't one of them.

You never stop to realize the mistakes you have made along life's highway until you have covered considerably more than half the journey.

If telling the truth is liable to get you a black eye, it's better, perhaps—but here we stop—for we don't want to get in bad by giving advice, but you may have heard it said that discretion is the better part of valor.

This talk about "cleaning out city hall" is all bald-faced on the part of any candidate. It sounds big, but it doesn't mean anything. Removals and attempted removals, even of department heads, haven't been very successful. And the clean-out threat is older than the city hall itself.

A farmer from one of the towns near Lowell was discussing prohibition with brother grangers and made some of them sit up and take notice by declaring that he thought prohibition was a darn nuisance. But he held his own very well in the arguments that followed. "There's gold to be leker sold, anyhow," he said, "and the stuff they're selling now is something terrible. One of my hired men came home the other night and he was drunk as a fool. Now we have had an awful time with rats at our place, both in house and barn. I saw they were getting the upper hand and about two weeks ago I bought and borrowed a lot of cats. For the last few days the rats have been pretty quiet, and now I'm going to jump back to the hired man and the whiskey. As I was saying, he came home terrible drunk. He was standing in the kitchen and a bottle that he tried to take from his pocket fell on the floor and smashed. The contents went over the floor and some of it reached a rat hole. Oh, yes, the rats had eat holes right into the kitchen. Well, as I said, the leker reached a rat hole and here's what happened. A big rat came and took a sniff. He went away, came back again and took another sniff. He went away again and the next time he came back he lapped up some of it and then he jumped out on the floor, stood up on his hind legs and said: 'Now bring on your d—cats!'

A Delicate Sense

"Which is the most delicate of the senses?" asked the teacher.

"The touch," said young Jones.

"How's that?" asked the teacher, and Jones explained: "Well, when you sit on a pin, you can't see it, you can't hear it, you can't taste it, but it's there."—Edinburgh Scotian.

One Good Jury

A jury at Allegan, Mich., sprung a surprise in the damage suit, brought by Leon A. Joslin against Glenn Richards, in which he asked $5000 heart balm for the alienation of his wife's affections. After deliberating less than 30 minutes the jury returned a verdict of $6000 damages to the plaintiff.

A Washington, D. C., young woman is engaged to three young men. She promised to marry 'em Christmas day, and then wrote to the editor of a newspaper asking him to choose the "lucky man." He replied:

"I haven't any hard feelings against any of them. So why should I doom one to marry a woman whose love is so shallow that she can spread it over three?"

Lend Us to 'Em

Wild cherries—so wild that five of them will give you an "edge" and ten will start one reeling—brought Cleopatra Barr, two years old, of Camden, N. J., to the hospital. For two years the wild cherries had been growing wilder surrounded by whiskey in a jar in the Barr home—for medicinal purposes. Often Cleopatra had to be sent to the hospital for headache, backache and sores, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Dr. Pierce fifty years ago.

Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening, bearing-down pains, irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it, in liquid or tablet form.

Get Used to Yourself

Now this is the first of human laws;

Get used to yourself!

And why?

Because you must live with yourself for a long, long spell. Drunken or sober, or sick or well.

You are wed to yourself for better or worse.

For better or blessing, for boon or curse.

And no decree or desire shall give you a separate state in which to live.

Aye, though you disover your bonds of clay.

And throw yourself from your brain away.

You are still a carcass, or still a soul.

But you still are yourself in part or whole.

Sinner or saint, (and I'd venture an old dogma)

You will find that yourself is a little of both).

Get used to yourself, and as sinner or saint,

Learn to live with yourself, and without complaint!

FOR DEVELOPING BRAZIL'S RESOURCES

RIO DE JANEIRO.—(By the Associated Press)—A plan for developing Brazil's agricultural, pastoral and mineral resources has been proposed to the Chamber of Deputies by Dr. Cincinato Braga, deputy from the state of São Paulo. Pointing out Brazil's need for an iron and steel industry, he said that the state of Minas Gerais alone contains more than 2,500,000,000 tons of mineral which contains from 60 to 70 per cent. pure ore.

The deputy proposes that Brazil at once take steps to develop its own iron and steel industry, thereby effecting an economy of at least 50 per cent and in addition greatly augmenting the resources of the country. To establish this industry, it is estimated, it will be necessary for the federal government to expend the equivalent of $13,500,000 in a period of seven years, at the rate of $6,250,000 annually.

The plants, it is proposed, are to be operated by electricity generated by water-power, and the initial appropriation suggested in the present Brazilian budget is intended for use in surveys and initial installation of hydro-electric plants.

The deputy recommended the establishment in each state of the union of four schools of practical instruction and training under foreign teachers in mechanical and electrical engineering, industrial chemistry, agriculture and veterinary science.

Liberal appropriations are recommended to assist cattle breeders in purchasing suitable foreign breeding stock.

FIRST WOMAN TO SEEK PUBLIC OFFICE IN RIO DE JANEIRO

RIO DE JANEIRO.—The first woman to seek election to public office in Rio de Janeiro is Doolinda Daltró, a professor in the public schools, who announces her candidacy as representative in the city council in the next municipal elections.

Mme. Daltró frankly admitted in an interview that she has not much hope of winning. She declared, however, that defeat at the polls was of less importance than the fact that she will be making a fight for the emancipation of her sex. Her main object, she said, will be to provoke debates on what she considers the momentous problem of obtaining political rights for the women of Brazil, who at present are not entitled to vote.

Mme. Daltró, who is a widow, has been prominently identified with educational and welfare work in Brazil for many years.

NEARLY KILLED IN RAID ON RADICALS

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Nov. 21.—United States Commissioner Charles N. Lilley of Grafton, W. Va., narrowly escaped injury or death yesterday when a bullet was discharged from a pistol concealed within the handle of a huge pocket knife found in raiding alleged radical headquarters at the Dakota mines, near here.

When Commissioner Lilley, who was assisting "departments of justice" agents in the raid, picked up the knife from a table, it was discharged instantly, the bullet tearing a hole through the sleeve of his coat and barely missing his body.

Three alleged radicals were arrested yesterday bringing the present total here to 49. Federal agents said last night that more than half this number are being held pending deportation proceedings while the remainder will be placed under the jurisdiction of county and state officials, according to the provision of the red flag act.

CAMPAIGN TO MAKE WORLD DRY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 21.—A campaign to make the world dry was launched yesterday by the National Women's Christian Temperance Union. A legislative program was adopted, which among other recommendations urged congress to enact legislation disfranchising Americans in countries where treaties granted extra territorial rights, for acting in violation of the dry law.

The proposed law is designed to apply especially to brewers contemplating moving to China, it was explained. The entire legislative program was adopted as presented.

A total of $2100 was collected for memorials to Gen. Pershing and Secretary of the Navy Daniels. The convention ended last night.

Welcome Home Reception
to Service Members of St.
Margaret's Parish

Attended by a record-breaking crowd the seventh annual reunion of St. Margaret's parish, held last evening in Associate hall, proved one of the most enjoyable events of the present season. The affair this year was in the nature of a welcome home reception to the young men and women of the parish who did their bit when democracy called, and a large number of former service men were present to participate in the splendid program arranged by the committee in charge.

The decorations by C. F. Young were handsome and appropriate.

The hall was tastefully draped with streamers of red, white and blue bunting and the stage was covered with a profusion of greenery, potted palms and emblems of allied nations framed against a background of heavenly blue. In the centre of the stage was suspended a large shield with the words: "Welcome Home Our Heroes."

An excellent concert in which appeared several well known local entertainers, was enjoyed during the early part of the evening and was followed by dancing. Brederick's popular or-

The first number on the concert program was offered by Miss Helena M. Connors, who appeared in a Spanish dance. Miss Connors followed her initial effort with several Irish folk dances, and made a tremendous hit with her graceful and fetching portrayal.

Mrs. Nora Regan Longtin offered two pleasing vocal selections, both of which were encored to the limit. She was followed by Michael D. Brennan, who gave several zestful song numbers.

Commissioner James E. Donnelly gave his own inimitable brand of entertainment, consisting of Scotch selections and ballads of the day. Perhaps his best number was "The Laddies Who Fought and Won," which literally brought down the house.

The finale of the concert program was offered by Mrs. Carolyn White McNally, who appeared in several up-to-the-minute piano selections.

Mrs. Frederick W. Keefe, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, was responsible in a large

Other officers were: John Walsh, floor director; Hon. James B. Casey, chairman of the reception committee; Mrs. John M. Murphy, chairman of the entertainment committee; Richard A. O'Connell, music committee; John A. McQuade, decoration committee, and Rufus C. Flond, publicity committee.

DAYLIGHT SAVING

Urged by Connecticut Chamber of Commerce

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 21.—Re-enacting of a national daylight saving law was favored by the Connecticut chamber of commerce in a resolution which among others was adopted yesterday at the closing session of the annual convention. The body also put itself on record in favor of its own inquiry, through committees of the state taxing system, of the transportation problem for a plan to promote increased foreign trade for Connecticut manufacturers, for enforcement of laws to maintain peace, order and pub-

The chamber demanded in resolution that laws be enforced to the end that no body of men, in governmental or non-governmental employ, may by conspiracy or concerted action, deprive a community of transportation, light, fuel or food. It called for increased production of commodities and of food products, more attention to agriculture and inquiry into the problems which have arisen through activities of non-English speaking persons. It declared that "permanent conduct of business enterprises by the government at the expense of the tax payers in time of peace is not a proper function of a democratic government."

Last night the chamber at its banquet had for guests the international trade commission, which came here from Boston.

200 Delegates Attend An-

Man For President

President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard university, distinguished scholar and lecturer, was the honored guest and speaker at the dinner of the Federation of Harvard clubs held last evening at the Highland club. The dinner marked the close of the annual gathering, with the Lowell Harvard club members as hosts, which first convened yesterday forenoon with a business session at 10:30 o'clock, followed by luncheon and an afternoon of sports and recreation. More than 200 men attended.

Aside from President Lowell's address, election of officers held a prominent place at the dinner. Frederic C. Weld of Lowell, 1919 secretary, was chosen president of the federation, to succeed Hon. William B. C. Stickney of Rutland, Vt. Other officers elected were: Vice president, Charles D. Booth, Portland, Me.; secretary, Alfred Chase Lynn; treasurer, Martin A. Taylor, Haverhill. The executive committee includes President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, William B. C. Stickney of Rutland, Vt., George Wiglesworth of Milton, Dr. Homer Gage of Worcester, J. Putnam Walker of Bangor, Me., Walter W. Simmons of Manchester, N. H., C. T. Billings of Belmont, E. A. Harriman of New Haven, Conn., Dr. A. R. Grindall of Taunton, and George Richmond Parsons of Providence, R. I.

The problem of teaching Harvard students to think for themselves and assert themselves in the life of the world in which they live after college days, was the salient point put under discussion by President Lowell. In part, he said:

"At Harvard it is not our intention to stamp any particular note of thought upon the student. But there have been universities that have striven for that purpose, particularly so in Germany. What is a remarkable fact is contained in the truism that

German socialists, who differ from other Germans in that they would teach independence of thought rather than rote, have never received appointments to any of the educational offices. If the educational institutions there had been like our American schools, the militaristic projects of the German government could never have been launched.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating, not in any theoretical opinions that one may hold. Some persons have said that Harvard teaches pernicious doctrines and that the school tends to be irreligious.

"I do not know that graduates have exerted any irreligious influence, but rather that their influence has been altogether healthful and sound.

"In case of the recent police strike in Boston I sent a letter to the police commissioner stating that I urged Harvard men to assist the governor in every way in maintaining law and order, even by voluntary enlistment. NEW DOLLS' EYES

There may be a slump in the market for glass eyes—at least for dolls. German toymakers are utilizing painted cherry stones for their dolls. Size and shape are right, by nature, and color is the only thing needed.

The mineral wealth of Persia is inestimable, say scientists, and as yet is scarcely touched.

Dfeat Lowell in Fast Game—Davies Back in Lowell Lineup

NEW BEDFORD, Nov. 21.—New Bedford poloists defeated Lowell in a fast game here last night by the score of 4 to 0. Davies, who has been out of the Lowell lineup for over a week returned to the game and played well. Mulligan was injured in the first period by coming in contact with O'Brien's stick, but returned in the final period and scored two goals. The others were driven in by "Bob" Hart. The Lowell players worked hard all the way, but Conley's wonderful goal tending prevented a score. There was no scoring in the first period. The score:

POLO NOTES

Davies will be back in the game here tonight.

"Bob" Hart, Barney Doherty, Paul Gardner, Mossie Conley and Jack Keane or Leo Mulligan will make up the New Bedford Whalers who play Lowell at the Crescent Rink tonight.

The New Bedford outfit is regarded as one of the strongest in the league and is going like a house afire just now. Hart is in the form of his life, coming along, polished, with remarkable consistency. He is leading the league in goal-scoring and is also showing much speed in going to the spot.

A large number of Hart's friends and admirers will be on hand tonight to greet him.

The last time New Bedford played here Lowell was beaten and the Hartkins crew will go out to win at any cost tonight.

Mossie Conley, goal tender of New Bedford, is one of the classiest cage guardians in the league. Recently he made an even 100 stops.

These four Ladies have regained their health and strength by taking RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women

Saying a good word for RED PILLS

It is now six years since I took RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women, and I consider it my duty to praise them highly, for they have helped me so much that I am now strong and well. I eat well, sleep well and in fact cannot complain of anything. Two boxes of RED PILLS relieved me, and fifteen boxes put me in fine health. I now take pleasure in recommending RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women to my numerous friends.—Mrs. PHILIAS GAMACHE,

DELIVER CHRISTMAS BOXES IN EUROPE

The American Red Cross will undertake to deliver to Red Cross personnel in Europe such Christmas boxes as relatives and friends in this country wish to send. All shipments must be subject to the following conditions, however:

1. Each box must be 4x6x18 inches, outside measurement, and of heavy cardboard, corrugated board or such other material as will insure delivery of the box at the Atlantic seaboard in perfect condition.
2. No more than two such boxes will be delivered to any one Red Cross worker in Europe.
3. The contents of the box must be governed by the attached regulations.
4. Each box should bear plainly written or printed the full address of the consignee and of the sender.
5. They should be addressed to the consignee, care of the American Red

When a Woman's Teeth Are Most in Danger

The quality of the saliva has much to do with the condition of the teeth. Before the baby comes, and immediately thereafter, it undergoes a change, and often the mother finds herself with sensitive gums and loosening teeth.

This condition is temporary, and need not be mistaken for the onset of pyorrhea. Miss Delta Spellman, a nurse at the state hospital, New York, with years of experience, advises the gentle use of the tooth brush twice a day with a preparation free from irritating drugs, and gum massage by finger. She recommends Alabon Dental Cream knowing it is both effective and safe and fully meets all requirements of women and children.

A tube holding 85 brushfuls can be bought guaranteed at any drug store. Alabon is calcium carbonate, saponified and mixed with the well-known antiseptic oils of clove, cinnamon and eucalyptus, which authorities declare is best for women and children.—Adv.

Cross, Warehouse No. 21, Bush terminal, Brooklyn, New York.

6. Packages must be sent in time to reach Brooklyn by Nov. 27.

7. Boxes should be sent by parcel post, special delivery, or express.

8. Boxes should be submitted before being sent, to the local postal authorities to make sure that they will be accepted in the mails.

9. Boxes should be so packed and wrapped as to permit of easy opening for inspection if necessary.

10. Boxes must be limited in weight to 50 pounds.

Nothing should go in a Christmas parcel which will not keep fresh from the time of packing until Christmas.

Dried fruits and other food products should be packed in small tin or wooden boxes, one-quarter to one-half pound size.

Hard candy, including chocolate, would probably be safe in tin foil or heavy cardbord, but no soft chocolates, nor anything that could possibly be crushed should be used, as the remaining contents of the package might be spoiled thereby.

Several dentists packed in oblong tin boxes holding each a quarter of a pound will provide a better variety for a packet than a larger quantity of a single confection.

No liquids, inflammable articles, nor articles packed in glass should be placed in the package.

After recovering from a severe attack of "grippe" last fall, my constitution was run-down and in a weakened condition. I was constantly troubled with headaches, backaches, poor digestion, and was getting so weak that I had lost all interest in life. I started to take RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women, and it was not long before I started to feel stronger and better in many ways. In about four or five months my health was completely changed and I was feeling fine.—MARY DALY,

ed for the nerves

RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women have strengthened me, they have calmed my nerves and helped my stomach. I took twenty-four boxes and was made well. I am now able to digest my food easily, I am strong and courageous and life seems brighter to me than ever before. I therefore do not hesitate one minute in recommending RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women, so that others may have a chance of being benefited by their use, just as I have been.—

WOMAN KILLED BY AUTO

Chelmsford. Boy Charged With Manslaughter Held in $2000

Accused of manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Grace M. Sowry, 40, of 2 Hereford place, 16-year-old Harry Manseau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Manseau of Chelmsford Captive, pleaded not guilty in juvenile court today and was held in $2000 for hearing Dec. 19. The boy's father furnished bonds. The police alleged that the lad is the driver of the automobile which struck and almost instantly killed Mrs. Sowry on Middlesex street this morning.

The accident happened shortly before 7 o'clock. Mrs. Sowry was on her way to work in the Appleton mills and had stepped from the sidewalk near the intersection of Middlesex and Grand streets when she saw an auto coming down the street, according to the story of eye-witnesses. She stopped short, and the machine also came to a halt. Momentarily confused, she stepped in front of the car, as it started, and was thrown to the ground, fracturing her skull.

She was first taken to St. John's hospital, and later the body was removed to the funeral parlor of C. H. Molloy's Sons. She is survived by her husband, who is believed to be in Providence, and two sons, both of Lowell.

Raise For Teachers

committee has not raised salaries this year," said Mr. Walsh, "is that it has not sufficient money. I understand that teachers have complained, but the committee looks upon such complaints as unreasonable. Newspaper editorials of great length have been written regarding teachers' salaries, but I have yet to see the fair amount of consideration given the position of the committee or its side put forth."

"In the early part of 1919, when the committee was at work on the preparation of its yearly budget, it told the teachers that if they desired salary increases this year to make such requests at that time when the financing of the entire school system was being considered for the year. The committee told the Teachers' organization that the salary question would not be taken up again during the fiscal year. The teachers had received a raise in September of 1918 and, with the exception of the kindergarten instructors, were given the amounts requested."

"After the committee's statement to the teachers early this year, the organization said it would not ask for an increase then, but did request that the period of time for attaining the maximum salary be reduced from 10 to seven years. That meant an increase to a great many teachers. The committee granted that request and believed the salary question settled for the year."

"In June, the police and firemen asked the municipal council for salary increases and at about the same time the teachers made a similar request. They asked for a hearing, but this the committee refused, but as chairman of the board, I sent a communication to the Teachers' organization, saying that, in view of what already had passed at the beginning of the year in relation to salaries and in view of the fact that the committee already had asked the municipal council for an additional $25,000 for the running expenses of the department, for the remainder of the year, the board would not take up the salary increase question at that time but would postpone it until December. The request was neither granted nor refused, simply postponed."

"The attitude of the committee has been that teachers' salaries ought to be increased, but it does say that the time for so doing is at the commencement of the fiscal year, not in the middle of it."

"There seems to be an impression in the city that the school committee can expand any amount of money it pleases at any time, but that is not a fact. Under the city charter, no money can be expended by any department until an appropriation therefor is voted by the council. As I understand the charter there may be an emergency expenditure to exceed the appropriation, but the raising of salaries is not such an emergency under the law."

"The committee recently received two unexpected additions to its appropriation. One came from the federal government called the Smith-Hughes fund, which must be expended for vocational school purposes exclusively. The other is a payment from the commonwealth, authorized by an act of 1919, being the distribution of the general school fund, so-called. The Smith-Hughes fund was applied immediately to the increasing of salaries of vocational school instructors, and to appoint two new teachers, who were urgently needed. The state money, just received by the city, has been appropriated to the school department. The statement has been made that this money could not be legally used for any purpose other than to raise salaries. That is absolutely wrong."

"It is a reimbursement to the city for salaries already paid and is made up on the basis of refund of $100 for each teacher receiving between $650 and $750; $150 for each teacher receiving between $750 and $850, and $2000 for each teacher receiving more than $850. The amounts which the city received totals a little more than $50,000. This money may legally be used by the school department for any purpose to which it deems it wise to apply it, but the committee believes that so far as is possible the money should be used to increase salaries and it will be so applied."

"Some weeks ago the Teachers' organization was notified that the committee intended to grant increases and facts and figures were asked for, showing salaries being paid in other cities so that a new schedule could intelligently be made up. These facts were furnished the board and we now have them under consideration. Also the matter was taken up with the janitors and other department employees and their requests also are under consideration."

NEWS OF THE DAY IN POLICE COURT

On charges of stealing, $9 from David Patrice, and also assault him, James H. Brophy was arraigned on continuance in police court today and a further continuance ordered until next Tuesday. Hall, which was originally placed at $300, was increased to $1000 by Judge Earlight. Brophy denied the charge.

According to Patrice's story, he met Brophy on Moody street on the afternoon of Nov. 18. They got a room in a Merrimack street lodging house, and he bought several bottles of "Jaley" at $3 a bottle. Later in the day Brophy threw him down on the bed and someone went through his pockets and removed all his money but 50 cents. About $60 was taken, he said. There had been another man in the room at the time and he was unable to say whether it had been Brophy or "the other fellow" who searched him.

Brophy was not called upon to testify today, his counsel stating that he would have witnesses for the defense present when the case is called Tuesday.

Michael Lallas, found guilty of violating the headlight laws, was fined $10. Patrolman Aldrich made the arrest.

TO ORGANIZE

GROUP SINGING

An attempt will be made at the high school next week by Frederick N. Woodward, acting headmaster, to place group singing in the school on an organized basis, so much so, in fact, as to make a well constituted glee club the ultimate goal. It is Dr. Woodward's belief that a glee club can be formed which will be capable of combining with the banjo and mandolin clubs in the presentation of a fine musical program before the end of the school year. The instruction will be in charge of Fred O. Blunt, who will hold all practice sessions in the parish house gymnasium, next door.

FOR DISABLED ACTORS

Mayor Perry D. Thompson, at the request of the Actors' National Memorial Association, has appointed a local committee to represent Lowell in a drive to be conducted for funds to take care of actors who were disabled in the world war and the families of those who gave up their lives. The local committee includes William H. Mahan, Benjamin F. Pickett, Daniel J. McCaffrey, J. William Schaeke and John McManus.

Booze Money

Where is "boozie" money going now? What is becoming of the dimes and dollars that, until the advent of war time and national prohibition—kept the cash registers in thousands of bar-rooms and saloons chiming a constant tune? Uncle Sam's researches estimate that every bar-room, saloon, hotel, soft drink, movies and candy come next. Read special correspondent's article in the Sunday Supplement.

Girl Traffic Manager

She is a twenty-one-year-old slip of a girl with offices in Broadway, New York city. She gets $1000 a year and owns an interest in the business. She says you can't get anywhere unless you put your head and your heart into the thing you're doing.

Good Sugar Crop

Special correspondent for The Sun writing from Washington declares that the sugar shortage will soon be a matter of history and that next year's supply will be over normal. He says the people of this country eat many times as much sugar as Europeans. He thinks that if congress would do the country a real service it will continue the sugar equalization board. If it doesn't, the board will become extinct January 1 and the people will be left at the mercy of the profiteers.

Drug Smuggling

Border drug smugglers use airplanes to elude the United States patrol. Mexicali, unofficial capital of Lower California, is battlefield of wits for government agents and "dope" runners. Large quantities of opium are being put into circulation. It is hidden in almost indeetectable places on the human body. Sunglasses hide it in oil cans and gasoline tanks of automobiles. It is also hidden in the hair on women's heads, in coat linings, in pencils and pens.

Washington Letter

Richards, the Washington correspondent of The Sun this week, has an interesting discussion of the census, showing that Massachusetts is likely to gain two new members as a result of the new enumeration of polls. This writer also deals with the question of who shall own Mt. Vernon, the estate held by George Washington. At present it is held by the Mt. Vernon association, which charges an admission to the grounds and closes gates on holidays and Sundays. There is a popular clamor against this arbitrary method of excluding the public on the days when it is most convenient for them to visit this historic spot. Also discussion of the dye question and its present status in congress with other topics of interest.

Lady Lookabout

This writer discusses the campaign of lady Astor, who will probably be the first woman to enter the British parliament, and takes exception to the statement of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, leader of the woman suffrage movement in the United States when she talks of women as being "liberated from thralldom" in being given the right to vote.

"Old Timer" this week tells of the 10th anniversary of the Lowell Meeting House in Dracut and how it was observed 25 years ago—also relates an amusing episode in connection with the Lowell Opera House in which M. A Home Treatment for Asthma Makes Breathing Easy

A Worcester, Mass., doctor has suggested the following simple, harmless and inexpensive home treatment for bronchial asthma, chronic bronchitis and coughs and colds which threaten to affect the lungs.

At Lowell get a bottle of Oxdazole, a small oil tablet and slowly dissolve one tablet in mouth at regular intervals. Though harmless and pleasant they are so powerful in their action that even in stubborn cases relief often comes in just a few minutes.

Many users set up for bed, feeling too breathless and unable to sleep report that they now take an Oxdazole tablet when going to bed and can then lie down and breathe easily and naturally and get a good night's restful sleep. Pharmacists everywhere are selling Oxdazole, with positive guarantee to refund the full purchase price of the first package if it fails to give prompt relief in any case of Bronchial Coughs or Asthma.—Adv.

This will interest all Lowell people, especially those who remember gratefully the work of the Salvation Army during the war. The pastor has asked all men who were in service, together with all nurses and S.A.T.C. men to come in uniform and sit near the front of the auditorium to honor the Salvation Army and our guest. The regular offering is to be received, but at the close Salvation Army lassies will be in the vestibules to accept special gifts.

VILLA'S CHIEF AID ON TRIAL FOR REBELLION

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 21.—General Felipe Angeles, chief Lieutenant of Francisco Villa and famous artillery expert, captured last Wednesday by Mexican federal forces under General Gabino Olivo, near Valle Oliva, faced trial by court martial today in Chihuahua City, Mexico. The trial is considered by Mexican authorities as the most important held in that country during a decade of revolution and banditry.

Reports along the border today were to the effect that Gen. Angeles would be accused of rebellion against his

COMMUNITY CLUB, DUTTON STREET, LOWELL, MASS.

November 20, 1919.

To the People of Lowell:

You are invited individually to become members of your own Community Service and to secure your membership card.

I am addressing a necessarily limited number of your citizens after dinner at the Community Club on Dutton Street on Monday evening, Nov. 24th, when, with the help and approval of the present acting Executive Committee I shall explain the plan for the establishment of Lowell's Community Service, to embrace the whole of the people of Lowell. You will learn full particulars later. All join with the true Community Spirit.

As a united Community you can do great things for Lowell as you succeeded in doing for the Country in the World's War but now it will be to establish better conditions in Peace Times.

Anyone unavoidably or unintentionally omitted, and the number is great, will be welcome if interested and they can obtain from the office on Dutton Street, tickets admitting to the gallery, open at 8 o'clock, when the business meeting commences.

Yours faithfully,

OTTO HOCKMEYER.

If it's not brilliant, it's just NOT a new blouse.

OUR breath is almost taken away by the suddenness of Fashion's leap into color—almost overnight our blouses have changed from a simple white to a butterfly festiveness.

Turquoise, green, gray, bisque, yellow, coral, copenhagen, flaming reds—they troop by. The shops can't get fast enough the vivid blouses in every style, from sport shirts to sheerest chiffons, that women are clamoring for. But there's a new way to get the color blouse you want, the minute the fashion magazines announce the new color.

A wonderful new product that gives flashing loveliness to everything it touches. Now you can have that peach-colored blouse you've wanted so—you can just wash your cream crêpe de Chine the loveliest peach imaginable!

HOW TO USE TWINK

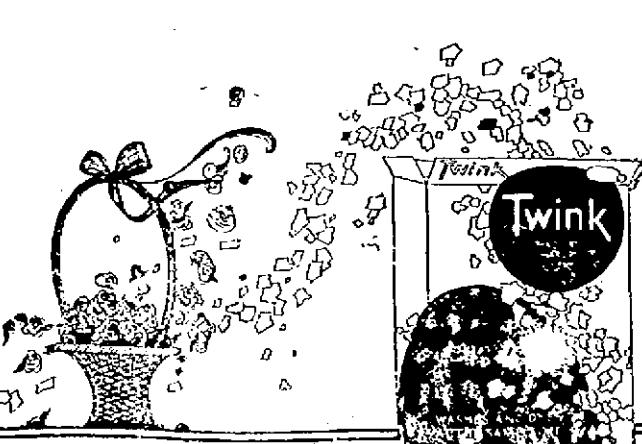

For Flesh, Pink, Peach, Old Rose, Yellow and Lavender: You make a gay lather as hot as your hands will bear, and wash the garments just as with Lux, only rinsing in cold water.

For the other colors: You use salt, and boiling water. You work the garment about in the boiling hot Twink suds for five minutes, then add cold water until the suds are cooled just enough for your hands to bear. Then squeeze the suds through, as with Lux, and rinse in cold water till the water runs clear.

The amounts to use are given in the directions that come with the Twink package.

government and that the death penalty would be asked.

Some authorities in El Paso believed his execution would be disastrous to the Carranza government in that a new revolutionary movement might sprout here in the opinion that the bandit leader would make some demonstration over the capture of his chief lieutenant. Villa was last reported in the broken country southeast of Ojinaga, Chihuahua, on the international boundary, gathering his forces for a new offensive within the next month.

Appeal For Angeles

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Many officials and private citizens of Washington and other cities have sent cable messages to friends in Mexico urging them to persuade President Carranza to save the life of General Felipe Angeles, who is reported to be on trial by court-martial today at Chihuahua City. The messages pointed out that Angeles served the allies with distinction during the European war as inspector of munitions for France in this country.

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

President John M. O'Donoghue and Secretary John J. O'Rourke of the local board of trade went to Boston this afternoon to attend the annual meeting of the Massachusetts chamber of commerce at the Hotel Vendome. The business session opened at 2 p.m. and consisted of the annual address by the president of the chamber and reports of the various officers. The evening session was to begin at 8:30 with a dinner at which the principal speaker scheduled was Gov. Calvin Coolidge.

NOT ARCTICS ENOUGH TO GO 'ROUND

A large crowd gathered at the army store on Market street this forenoon, attracted especially by the announcement that a consignment of arctics with cloth tops would be offered for sale at $1.60 a pair. Manager Broad regrets that owing to a delay in shipment the small number on hand was wholly inadequate to meet the demand. He hopes to be able to offer additional goods in this line within the next few days.

JURY DISAGREES

IN LAIRD CASE

James Laird of Lowell, who was sentenced to 15 months in the house of correction by Judge Bright on Oct. 25 after being found guilty on three charges of larceny and who appealed from this sentence, was arraigned in the criminal session of superior court at East Cambridge today. The jury disagreed and no verdict was reached.

The charges on which Laird was convicted at the local court were: Larceny of a pocketbook containing $50 from Miss Agnes T. Horan; larceny of a pocketbook from Miss Ethel Dolan, containing $6 and other articles; and

DISCUSS INTERVENTION

IN MEXICO BY U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—State department officials in discussing the Mexican situation today disclosed that three years ago the army general staff estimated that an army of 450,000 men and three years would be required for complete intervention in Mexico by the United States.

Officials did not say what the present estimate of the general staff was, but it was said to be less than that prepared before the world war, due to the development of new instruments of warfare and an enormous increase in American war materials of all kinds, particularly motorized transports, airplanes and artillery.

Discussing the case of William O. Jenkins, American consul agent at Puebla, who was re-arrested last Tuesday on charges in connection with his abduction by bandits, officials said because of the Mexican Government's laxity in trying to put down the revolution, it had failed to give proper protection to Jenkins and that consequently he might have ground for claim against the Mexican government on the ransom money paid to his captors.

Supreme Council Sets Date For Formal Ratification of Pact

Council Working Out Plans For Enforcement Without Aid of United States

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The supreme council today agreed on December 1, as the date when the German peace treaty will be formally ratified.

Further informal discussions have been held with the German representatives now here in connection with the notification by the allies that a protocol must be signed by Germany guaranteeing fulfillment of the armistice conditions. These discussions have been confined chiefly to the methods of procedure in considering the protocol. As yet the Germans have not stated whether they will sign the document.

The American delegation is still without instructions as to its participation in the peace conference following the failure of the senate to ratify the treaty, but Henry White attended the meeting of the supreme council today as representative of the United States. Under Secretary Polk being absent in London, and the entire delegation is continuing its work in the belief that a compromise ratification resolution will be agreed to in the United States.

This view is apparently shared by most of the members of the council, who are anxious for the continuance of the United States in the deliberations of the peace-making body. The council, however, is working out plans so that the enforcement of the treaty will not be hindered if the United States fails to ratify the treaty later.

Jules Cambon of the French delegation, presided over the council's session in the absence of Foreign Minister Pichot. The next meeting will be held on Monday.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS AT SPALDING PARK

Lowell high school's football eleven lined up against Puncard high this afternoon at Spalding park in one of the most important games of the season. Puncard high has put up an exceptionally strong game this season, but on the other hand, the Lowell delegation was looking forward to victory owing to the fight which it put on against Haverhill high, one of the state leaders, last Saturday. This afternoon's game was ended at 2:45 and there was a fair-sized crowd of students on the sidelines.

ULTIMATUM TO COAL MINERS

Operators Declare Offer of 15 Per Cent a Ton Increase the Limit

Cannot Give More—Miners Confer Immediately To Consider Offer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Bituminous coal mine operators served what will be practically an ultimatum on the coal miners' representatives here today, telling them that the offer yesterday of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent day wage increases was the utmost that could be given. The miners went into a conference immediately to consider the offer.

Act. Pres. John L. Lewis of the miners' organization, who spent a part of the morning closeted with Secretary of Labor Wilson, presided at the miners' session.

Lewis announced after the miners' conference broke up that no conclusion had been reached and that the situation stood as it had been. Miners, he explained, would go into the joint session again this afternoon without having a definite response to the operators' proposals.

As any contract agreed to by the operators and miners must receive the approval of Fuel Administrator Garfield, some observers believed he would step in before the negotiations between the miners and operators reached an impasse.

There were reports that Secretary Wilson had proposed a wage advance of 30 per cent. The view of some operators was that Dr. Garfield and Mr. Wilson must reach an agreement on the amount of the advance before there could be further progress in the negotiations.

Meanwhile reports received here indicated that the scarcity of coal was becoming increasingly acute. While the enforcement of the priority order of the fuel administration was placed in the hands of regional coal committees, composed of railway directors and representatives of Dr. Garfield, word had been sent out from Washington to clamp on restrictions as tightly as local conditions would permit.

Readjustment of Wage Schedule Under Consideration, Says Mr. Walsh

Chairman Reviews Salary Question and Explains Postponement

The Lowell school committee has under consideration facts and figures which will be used in a complete revision of the schedule of wages of school department employees, said Chairman Richard Brabrook Walsh this morning. Salaries will be increased, as it has been the united opinion of the board throughout the year that they should be, but also he states that there was no reason for the belief in the minds of many people that this action would be taken at the meeting of the board last Wednesday evening. Every consideration and thought is being given the question in all its phases, the chairman said, in order that a readjustment may be intelligently made.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Checks aggregating $100,000, donated to the communist party of New York by some of the city's "parlor Bolsheviks," are in the hands of Chief City Magistrate McAdoo, it was learned today. ATTORNEY GENERAL AS GRAND JURY'S COUNSEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Gov. Smith has been asked by the extraordinary grand jury which initiated an investigation of the municipal administration to designate the attorney general as counsel to the jurors in continuing the inquiry.

Announcement of the action taken by the jury was contained in a presentation made yesterday with Justice Bartow S. Weeks. It was explained that the jury had been inspired in its investigation "by reasonable grounds of belief that public officials had been guilty of wilful and corrupt misconduct in office." The inquiry has been hampered, the presentment said, by lack of proper legal counsel.

Early in its survey of municipal offices and departments the jury came into conflict with District Attorney Swann and refused to be guided by his advice. The governor was asked at that time to appoint counsel but no action was taken by him.

The presentment said that Mayor Hyatt's charges of a conspiracy between the Interborough Rapid Transit company and its employees to foment the strike last August could not be determined properly without a thorough investigation of "the origin and causative processes for these charges."

After the document had been read and Justice Weeks had instructed the jurors as to what constituted misconduct in office, Mr. Swann declared he was perfectly willing to give the jury all the help in his power and that he would assign one, two or three of his assistants to the work.

He was interrupted by Justice Weeks with the suggestion that evidence relating to an alleged milk trust should be presented to the jury. Mr. Swann demurred and said he would not like to present to the jury as it is now composed anything except facts bearing upon corruption in city or county offices. He insisted these charges should be disposed of first and offered personally to waive immunity and answer any questions the jury might see fit to ask.

COAL COMMISSION TO END FUEL FAMINE

BY BASIL M. MANLY,
Former Joint Chairman United States
War Labor Board

WASHINGTON, Nov.—The negotiations now taking place between the miners and operators may settle the strike, but they will not settle the coal problem.

Whatever increase in wages the miners may get or however his hours of labor may be shortened, there will be no real improvement in the situation until the fundamental evils of the industry are eradicated.

Cheap coal with good working conditions and fair profits is what the public wants. But the public cannot get cheap coal by the kind of bargaining and haggling that is now going on in the conference between the operators and the miners. Cheap coal can come only as the result of a radical change in the illuminous coal industry.

The fundamental evils of the coal mining industry are:

1. Irregular operation due principally to inadequate coal supply which results in meager annual incomes for the miners, even with a fairly high daily wage, and an inadequate supply of coal to meet the nation's needs.

2. Appalling waste—estimated by the United States geological survey at 56 per cent—of the nation's greatest natural resource.

3. Exorbitant profits for coal companies whose mines are fortunately located with adequate coal cars.

It has been estimated that with a scientific system of production and distribution the price of coal could be cut almost in half and still pay the operators a fair margin of profit, and give the miners larger incomes and

better working conditions than they now enjoy.

A properly constituted coal commission, with full power to compel testimony and the production of books and papers and authority to draft legislation, could in three months formulate a program which would effect this saving.

The coal commission ought not to be a big commission; it ought not to be a political commission; it ought not to be a partisan commission. It ought to be a commission responsible to the public, with proper protection of the interests of operators and miners.

The details of how this commission should be composed do not matter, but the choice of a chairman does matter. Every marked advance in our civilization can be traced to the vision, bairn and courage of some one strong man.

There is only one man in the United States whose ability, experience and standing qualify him to perform this great public service. That man is Judge Brandeis of the United States supreme court.

Ten years ago Judge Brandeis as attorney for the people before the interstate commerce commission exposed the inefficiency and waste of the railroads and by the pressure of public opinion forced the railroads to adopt new and better methods of operation and management.

Today every candid railroad official will admit that without the improvements which were effected as the result of the Brandeis campaign, the American railroads would have totally collapsed under the heavy strain of war traffic.

There is no reason why a justice of the supreme court should not be called upon to perform such a great public service.

AUTOCRACY PARADISE TO BOLSHEVIK REGIME

KIEV. (By the Associated Press.)—Bodies of victims executed by the Bolsheviks during their occupancy of this city are constantly being found and the first estimate of 4000 is evidently much below the real total.

Three Irish girls, Eva, May and Eileen Healy, who lived in Kiev during the last six months of Bolshevik rule, gave the correspondent an account of Bolshevik operations.

"The autocracy of the Romanoffs, with all its evils," they said, "was paradise compared to the Bolshevik hordes we have been living through."

The last few months, when the majority of the members of the Kiev committee of public safety were always under the influence of drink or drugs, transcended all conceivable awfulness. After every meeting, huge heaps of empty spirit and wine bottles and scores of morphine and cocaine bottles were found.

The members of the chief committee sat before a cage with wooden bars reaching to the ceiling. The prisoners were marched through the cage to be reviled and sentenced to death. Afterward they were stripped and carried off to the slaughter house.

Another committee conducted its proceedings in the open air in a beautiful garden. The judges sprawled over a table and pronounced death sentences wholesale, drinking champagne in the intervals.

One woman over 60 years old was arrested and taken out several suc-

ATTY. GEN. PALMER ON VERGE OF BREAKDOWN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Attorney General Palmer was reported yesterday on the verge of a nervous breakdown and under orders from his physician to get away from work and take all the rest he needs.

Mr. Palmer's physician has told him, it was said at the department of justice, that "unless he quite work for more than a week, he would not be responsible for the consequences." It was explained, however, that this was not to be taken to mean that he was in a serious condition.

Mr. Palmer had expected to attend a cost of living meeting of prosecuting attorneys at Columbus, O., Saturday but his physician told him not to go. There was no statement as to when or where he would go for a rest.

SALE OF PIANOS AND PIANO PLAYERS

The sale of pianos and piano players now being held at Wardell's Music store at 11 Merrimack street, is one that is attracting the attention of almost every music lover in the city. The sale is under the able supervision of Mr. Charles F. Shaw, manager of this very important department. Mr. Shaw's ability and experience in the piano line is a well known fact as he has been in this business for a great many years. His long experience in this line is a double assurance of square dealing and perfect satisfaction. Mr. Shaw held a very successful sale here in the city only a few years ago so that his direction of another sale at this time cannot but mean that he is offering some unusually good values at remarkably low prices. Mr. Shaw's expert knowledge is an important factor when one considers the purchase of a piano.

RADIUM BURN

MURKS THIEF

N.Y.A. Special to The Sun
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Officials of the University of Pennsylvania hospital are seeking the thief who stole a tiny tube containing $6000 worth of radium.

Deep burns, which develop a few days after exposure to radium rays, will more than sufficiently punish the culprit in any case.

The tube is one of six owned by the hospital. Four of them are in the tube which was lost was means of an electroscope, a delicate instrument containing gold leaf which shrivels in the presence of radium.

Capt. Raymond Adams, crippled by an accident while in training camp, found the missing tube in a pathway on the hospital grounds and returned it after carrying it for a few minutes in a vest pocket.

He is suffering from painful irritation of the deep tissues of his body as a result.

The tube disappeared after it had been used in treating a cancer patient. In the search for it, several patients were examined with an X-ray, as the tube is small enough to be swallowed.

The tube was found in the hospital and the hospital was searched by their cashiers.

MASQUERADE AND CHARACTER PARTY

The first masquerade and character party under the auspices of the J. L. Chalifoux Mutual Benefit association was held last evening in Lincoln hall and the affair was a huge success in every sense of the word. The attendance was large, the concert numbers by the orchestra were very enjoyable, the character march was pleasing and the refreshments served during intermission were most delectable.

In the early part of the evening an excellent musical program was given by Markham's orchestra, and later the character march was started, over a hundred couples taking part. At the close of the march suitable prizes were awarded to the winners, who were announced as follows:

Most original costume, Miss Esther McOsker, a Pierrot dancer, and most original man, Louis G. Cote, an Indian warrior. The prizes in the most grotesque group were accorded the following: First, Alcide J. Page, a tramp; Katherine Hafferty. Suitable prizes were accorded the judges' selections during the intermission.

The judges of the event were Miss

and Simandy, a colored lady; Miss Lucie Blennierhassett, Miss Anna Merrill and Mrs. C. D. A. Grasse.

At the close of the march general dancing was started and continued until a reasonable hour. Among the guests of the evening were Mayor and Perry D. Thompson, Miss Margaret Fields and John Mehan, leading lady and man at the Lowell Opera House. The success of the evening was due to the following officers:

Floor director, Alvah Johnson; assistant floor director, Miss Jeanette Cote; chief aids, Miss Grace W. Burns and Joseph H. Martin and aids, Lester Robinson and the Misses Florence Nickels, Katherine Donohoe, Mac Bradley, Alice Beaumont, Margaret Wilcox and Josephine O'Brien.

CHINESE NIGHT AT PASTOR'S HOUSE

As a means of creating interest in the foreign missionary work of the First Congregational church, especially as it is being carried on in China by Rev. and Mrs. Otto Reumann, commisioned as resident Chinese missionaries from this church, the young people were brought in touch with real Chinese atmosphere Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Chapman P. Hawkins in Fairmount street.

A Chinese home of glass, with hangings, Chinese lights and costumes, ivories, wall decorations and incense was reproduced in the spacious living room. No chairs were visible and each guest sat upon her own cushion, brought for just that purpose. Chop suey, eaten with chop sticks and other Chinese dishes added to the reality of the scene.

A series of prepared talks were given by women of the church interested in the event and the foreign missionary work. The program was as follows:

A Chinese School—Mrs. Walter Muzzey.
A Class in Chinese Characters—Miss Helen Thomas.
Some Chinese Customs—Miss Auguste Sarre.
A Chinese Wedding—Mrs. Harry Kershaw.
A Chinese Mother—Mrs. Frank Morse.
Chinese Songs—Mrs. Lillian Powers.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL OPPOSED

Opposition to the location of a silk factory in this city by a Brooklyn, N.Y., concern on the grounds that it is seeking a Lowell plant to evade the settlement of labor difficulties in Amsterdam, Sidney and Brooklyn, N.Y., was expressed by the Lowell Trades and Labor council at its meeting last evening. A committee was appointed to meet Secretary John J. O'Rourke of the board of trade, who was in conference with a representative of the concern in question Wednesday, to explain to him the reasons why local labor men are opposed to the coming of the factory here.

It was voted to oppose the so-called anti-strike law which is to come up at the special session of the legislature and the secretary was instructed to write to the local representatives and senators to this effect.

Opposition was also recorded to the Cummins Bill and the Esch bill which hold labor organizations liable to the extent of the funds they have on hand.

Communications from Congressman Rogers and Senator Lodge were read and placed on file.

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 21.—That politicians are to a degree responsible for the high fares now being paid by those using the trolley car was the statement made by Charles G. Washburn, chairman of the special street railway commission, when he spoke yesterday before the legislative committee on street railways.

"Mayors of cities served by the roads have tried to make a record during their administrations," he said, "with the result that municipalities have preyed upon the roads and stripped them of all the feathers they could. Now the lines are in a bankrupt condition."

Mr. Washburn intimated that the "polis" are not interested in keeping the lines in serviceable condition and that all they care about is to see to it that while their terms of office are running on they may pose as champions of the people by attacking the companies.

He believed it might be a good thing for all concerned, while discussion is going on on the present problem, if all the street cars in the state ceased operation so that everybody might be impressed by the necessity of proper transportation service.

"For years" he went on, "the fares charged by the companies have been too low. By that I mean the fares charged up to within a few years ago. The dollar has shrank in value by more than 50 per cent. As a result the lines have been trying to make five cents do the work of ten or fifteen."

As an illustration of the value now received by the traveling public for the fares they pay, Mr. Washburn referred to the days when as a student of Harvard he traveled between Cambridge and Boston.

"It was a horse car we rode in," he said. "It was lighted with kerosene lamps and had no heating apparatus. Mornings when the temperature would be around zero we would keep our feet

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing like Plain Nitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations in treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by soft, curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often warned by pushing them into the straw on the floor. The fare was six cents."

"Public supervision over trolley companies in the fixing of rates has been one of the principal elements entering into the decline of the roads," he held.

"Under the present conditions fares are set by the public service commission," he explained. "If a corporation manufacturing cotton cloth were compelled to sell its product at a price set by some outside party while it had to buy its material and the labor entering into the manufacture at the varying market price, where would it end up?"

The chairman characterized the jitneys as the "vampire" of the trolley industry. "These machines have cut heavily into the revenue of the Eastern Massachusetts lines," he said. "In one week during last summer that road lost $10,000 in fares through the competition of these vehicles. It has been stated that the company is losing $2,000,000 a year by reason of this opposition. Of course, anyone can recognize that the greater the number of persons carried on the jitneys must be followed by a corresponding failing off in the patronage of the street car lines, with the result that the companies are forced to increase the fares."

The only solution of the problem, he contended, is the banishment of the jitneys from those sections which already are served by the street cars.

Mr. Washburn maintained that the trolley business of Massachusetts has never been a commercial failure "he due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight carries with it general improvement in the health.

Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss George J. Vitoni, who was once thin and frail, reports her own experience, writes:

"Bitro-phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained

15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, and general weakness, it should not, owing to its tendency to increase weight, be used cause it has never been conducted along commercial lines." In this connection he was referring to the fare-fixing power of the state over the companies.

These machines have cut heavily into the revenue of the Eastern Massachusetts lines," he said. "In one week during last summer that road lost $10,000 in fares through the competition of these vehicles. It has been stated that the company is losing $2,000,000 a year by reason of this opposition. Of course, anyone can recognize that the greater the number of persons carried on the jitneys must be followed by a corresponding failing off in the patronage of the street car lines, with the result that the companies are forced to increase the fares."

The only solution of the problem, he contended, is the banishment of the jitneys from those sections which already are served by the street cars.

Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, and general weakness, it should not, owing to its tendency to increase weight, be used

panies.

BRING REVOLUTION

LONDON.—(By the Associated Press)—The speedy and peaceful settlement of the British railway strike was a sore disappointment to Russian Bolsheviks. They hoped that it would develop into open revolution. That was shown by a wireless message that was transmitted from Petrograd "with compliments to the British railway men," it stated:

"We, the railwaymen of Red Petrograd have heard the news of your general strike with joy and enthusiasm. You have broken the chains of civil peace. You have declared war on your government. You must pass from a general strike to an armed rising. In order to improve your economic position you must first destroy the present imperialist order of things and substitute for it a government of workers and peasants. Do not allow the leaders of the old trade union school to get at the head of the movement as they will betray you at the decisive moment. Victory is yours if you fight to the end."

VOICE FOR GOOD WILL OF NATIONS

If music hath charms to soothe the turbulent international breast, Miss Nocuko Hara, celebrated Japanese prima donna, may do more with her voice than diplomats are doing with their pens, for she has come to the United States to sing a better entente between this country and her native land.

MARRY THE GIRL?"

LONDON. (By the Associated Press)—Domestic servants affiliated with the National Federation of Women Workers are agitating for a standardized wage scale and the union's support of a program for enforcing improved conditions for all resident servants of $150 a month.

The proposals provide a minimum a year; six meal times, a half-hour for breakfast, one hour for dinner and a half-hour for tea; better sleeping accommodations; two hours free each day and a half-day addition each week; a 12-hour day, including time off; and 14 days' vacation each year with full board and wages.

One London newspaper in publishing these demands printed above the item this caption: "Why Not Marry the Girl?"

STUDENTS STRIKEQUIT COLLEGE WHEN 20 ARE

of Franklin & Marshall College, charged with hazing Charles Duttenhofer, a freshman, a week ago, were held for court at a meeting before a local magistrate last night. Twenty men were under arrest, but Duttenhofer was unable to identify three of his alleged assailants. The 17 men, many of them members of prominent families, each were placed under $200 bail.

Conditions at the college continue to be shrouded in uncertainty. Late yesterday the entire student body voted unanimously to strike today.

Before taking your train home from Boston, get The Sun at either newsstand or suspending the students. Dr. H. H. Apple, president of the institution, said: "That is our decision and further than that I have nothing to say."

Lowell Lodge of Elks
Stages Big Reception in Memorial Hall

Banquet, Cabaret and Addresses Features of Evening's Program

Staid old Memorial hall, rich in its memories of stirring activities of
days that have gone, lost its atmosphere of the past and became a throng-
when Lowell Lodge, No. 87, Benevolent
and Protective Order of Elks, held its welcome home reception to soldier and cavil brothers last evening.

Eighty-two members who were the uniform of the army, navy or marine corps in the recent world conflict were honored by their brother "Bills" in a manner that left no doubt of sincerity
and if the ghosts of Appomattox could have looked down from the walls of the hall, they undoubtedly would have been thrilled by the scene before them even more than were they in the stirring
days of the sixties.

A banquet, speechmaking, music,
good fellowship and a cabaret which

WILLIAM H. MARIAN,
Exalted Ruler

for Wellness has been seldom approached in Lowell and certainly never
in the chaste confines of Memorial
program.

A large number of the service men appeared in uniform, the hall was a patriotic bower of American flags among which nestled inscriptions of welcome,
softly-shaded candles adorned the
speakers' table and gaily colored paper hats covered the heads of the 450
Elks who were present. Decorator Charles F. Young was responsible for the excellent setting.

And then toward the end of the evening, just as a mark of appreciation,
the service men were presented gold
card cases by their brothers. It was one of the happiest and liveliest demonstrations that the Elks have ever
staged in Lowell.

It was nearly 8 o'clock when the speakers of the evening marched to the head table, followed by the civilian members. And finally after a brief interval, came the doughty veterans of the lodge, carrying the country's standard at their head and marching
in perfect unison to tables reserved for them, while the Elks' orchestra, supplemented and augmented by the tattoo
of countless wooden souvenir
march.

And then came the signal for three cheers for the service men and the evening's barrage was on.

Caterer Martin Lyden again came in the limelight by the excellence of his turkey dinner and commendation for his work featured the first phase of

pointed district deputy grand exalted
ruler for this district, was the toastmaster of the evening and he filled the position with becoming grace. Following the banquet, whose courses were
intermingled with cabaret features,
Mr. Farley rapped to order, told of the purposes of the gathering in a few well chosen words in which he expressed the joy of the lodge to welcome home its service men and asked that those present set apart a minute from the evening's festivity in memory of the
heroes who are not to return.

Representative Martin Hayes

He then introduced Martin Hayes of Boston, a former member of the state
senate but now in the house of representatives. Representative Hayes
proved a strong speaker with the knack of sending across his message
with a punch.

"We have enemies surrounding us
here at home just as surely as you
boys had enemies abroad," he said.
"There is hardly a community in this country but where there are nests of
those unfaithful to the cause for which you fought. It's the duty of the American Legion to continue the fight against the enemies at home."

"We're not a nation of people who
try to remember who our great-grandfathers were. There are only a few shipsloads of immigrants and a few
trips across the ocean separating any of us as far as our ancestry goes. But there is a job ahead of you men; the job of knocking out the hyphen. There is no room in this country for the hyphenated citizen. You fellows have a real fight on your hands but you have demonstrated that you know how to fight."

"I suppose you'll be told until the day that you kick off that this country is yours, but it isn't. I believe that you should be the leaders of the country, but the people of the United States
don't believe in military dictation."

LOWELL LEADS INFANT MORTALITY RATE

Lowell led the country in her infant mortality rate for the week ending Nov. 15, according to figures received at the office of the board of health today from the national census bureau. This city's rate was 33.3. New Haven was second with 25.9, and Cambridge third with 21.7. Fall River, usually among the leaders, was 11th on the list with 19.4. San Francisco was low with 4.6, and the average rate was 13.3. New York's rate was 12.3, Boston 12.4, Philadelphia 12.5 and Chicago 14.1. Eight other cities had a higher general death rate than Lowell.

They remember what happened to Germany. And you showed what you thought of this matter at your first national convention last week.

"You've got to stamp out the idea that one class of this country can dominate it to the detriment of others. It should be a case of all for one and one for all. There are spots in the United States that must be healed and the American Legion is the best healer I know."

District Attorney Tufts

In introducing District Attorney Nathan A. Tufts, Toastmaster Farley said that A. Tufts had gained the reputation on the football field of being one of the squarest referees in the game. No higher compliment could be paid him.

The district attorney was given a rousing reception. He said that our thanks to the service men won't amount to much unless we show it in a concrete form. And the best way of showing it, he said, was to carry on the work they started. He told of the outrage in Centralia, Washington, on Armistice day, when one of his acquaintances was shot down.

"The state of Washington may seem far off to you people, but right here in Lowell each week there is held a meeting of anarchists planning to do the same thing to you boys that was done to Glimes and the other veterans in Centralia.

"We need the united action of every man, woman and child who believe in that emblem which surrounds this hall. There is a great work to be done in stamping out the undesirable element in this country and the Elks constitute the logical order to carry on this fight."

Senator John E. Beck

Senator John E. Beck of Chelsea, former mayor of that city, was also enthusiastically received and his address was a real gem of patriotic inspiration. He told of the welcome home celebration held in Chelsea on Armistice day and said that the most impressive feature of the parade held in connection with the affair was the appearance of the women of the city, the mothers and sweethearts and sisters who had made untold sacrifices. He cited examples of the patriotism of womanhood in the war and said that the Stars and Stripes would always remain supreme while that spirit prevailed.

The selective service law and its successful administration was another glorious demonstration of the country's loyalty in time of stress, said Senator Beck. He suggested that the country remember the men of the world war, both living and dead, by special exercises.

Private John Rogers

Congressman John Jacob Rogers was introduced by the toastmaster as "Private John Jacob Rogers," and the introduction made a decided hit. Rarely has the congressman been given a more prolonged or hearty reception than that which was accorded him last evening. It was fully five minutes before the tumult ceased and he was able to speak.

"Congress got word that the Elks of Lowell were going to hold a big meeting tonight," said Mr. Rogers, "so I kindly adjourned at two minutes past four yesterday afternoon for 10 days.

CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK TRIMS PAPA*RICE SOLD BY TICKET TO HUNGRY FILIPINOS

Father opposed son at the Y.M.C.A. last night and the chip of the old block came out ahead. It was the annual father-and-son event and produced even more than the usual amount of relative interest and merriment. The boys who had been in the old block were all present and the youngsters were all charmed because of that setback that the joy of winning all the other games was somewhat dampened.

The basketball contest went to the boys 6 to 9. The fathers who played were W. E. Hall, Dr. N. S. Preston, Henry Linsell and Louis Browning. The boys were Johnny Preston, Nat Hall, Ray Dean, David Browning and Harry Linsell, but in the great national game of baseball, the boys experienced a stunning defeat. The reds under Moran never launched such a violent attack, but by the fathers. The same five men who played basketball also lined up for baseball, with the addition of Jas. Walsh, Otto Butler, Dr. N. S. Phillips, L. H. Carpenter and Dr. B. D. Blanchard. Their sons were Edward Walsh, Ralph Butler, Otto Phillips, Caspar Blanchard and Warner Carpenter.

A Simple Way to Get the Benefit of the Best Senna

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint contains the finest Egyptian Senna, as recommended by the U. S. P.

A GREAT many people, habitually constipated, find relief in chewing senna leaves or brewing them into a "tes" and drinking it. They will be glad to know that they can obtain senna already brewed, at no greater expense and in a much more convenient and agreeable form.

The chief laxative constituent of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint is Egyptian senna (Cassia acutifolia) gathered in the Egyptian Sudan. This grade is seldom sold at retail. It is, however, recognized as first in the U. S. Pharmacopeia because of its freedom from gipping and its cleaner action on the intestines, and because it does not lose its effect after repeated use.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

in the City of Springfield, Col. Alexander A. M. Damon, national field secretary of the Salvation Army of America, will revisit the city of his birth tomorrow as the guest of Adjutant Klep-

sik, commander of the "Safeties" in this city.

Col. Damon joined the army when still a youth, and has spent his life in the service of this great organization which helped to bring sunshine and happiness to the boys who went overseas to do or die. At the time of his appointment to the rank of commissioned officer he was the youngest man in the country to be holding this rank.

He will give his celebrated stereopticon lecture, "Darkest America" at the Salvation Army hall on Jackson street tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock and will explain how the army achieved its remarkable success during the months of the great conflict.

On Sunday morning he will make an address at the Highland Congregational church and in the evening will be heard at the Calvary Baptist church. His final appearance will be at the army hall, where he will speak Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

An enjoyable supper and entertainment was held at the Swedish Lutheran church last evening and a large number of the congregation—including both young folks and "grown-ups"—attended the event which proved one of the most successful of its kind.

The entertainment program follows:

tions, Edward Smith and family; selections by the choir; solo, Miss 18th Smith; duet, Messrs. Pooler and Ashton; reading, Miss Florence Tongberg; piano solos, Miss Mildred Anderson; duet, Mr. Pooler and Miss Helen Smith.

Coal Shortage Menaces Additional Industries and Threatens Food Supply

Extensive Shutdowns During the Next Ten Days Are Predicted

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The daily increasing coal shortage has begun to menace additional industries and threaten slightly the nation's food supply, with the further prospect of a sweeping curtailment of passenger traffic within 21 hours.

As the bituminous coal mines round out three weeks of idleness it became known, through a statement here today by the regional coal committee that the big Chicago packing plants "have about two weeks' supply of coal left" and that "when they have used that the committee will not be able to release any coal to them."

The immediate future of the steel industry today was causing concern, according to one Pennsylvania manufacturer, and in the Chicago district the Corn Products Co., at Argo, Ill., announced suspension of its other plant at Pekin, Ill., both having a capacity of 100,000 bushels of corn a day, already having been closed. The regional coal committee indicated it expected extensive shutdowns during the next 10 days unless production on a large scale was resumed.

Walter D. Illinois federal director general of railroads announced after his two-day conference with regional directors, that he would lay the facts of the coal situation before the cabinet so that he might be relieved of any personal responsibility for curtailment of industry.

In the general situation as regards the mines themselves but slight changes were apparent. They did not point to increased production.

Governors of all states with bituminous mines today had telegrams from Governor Harding of Iowa, suggesting concerted action to take over the mines and grant the workers a substantial increase pending the result of the joint wage conference at Washington. In Colorado, where a second strike has been ordered, a court order restraining the district officials from putting it into effect was in force. It was obtained by Victor E. Keyes, state

The week's supply ration for Chicago and the northwestern region, which extends to the Pacific coast, was increased to one ton.

Thanksgiving Offer One Dessert Free

A Real-Fruit Dessert For Six People

This is an offer to buy you this week a Jiffy-Jell dessert for six people.

Many housewives don't know what Jiffy-Jell means to them. They know the old-style quick desserts, but not the new.

Each package contains a bottle of fruit juice condensed.

We crush the real fruit, and much of it, to flavor a Jiffy-Jell dessert. A Jiffy-Jell dainty seems filled with fruit. Here you get fresh-fruit delights. And you get its healthful acids, needed every day.

Try One Fruit Free

Present the coupon to your grocer this week. Buy two packages of any flavor and he will give you a full-size package of Jiffy-Jell in Loganberry or Pineapple flavor free. We will pay him for the free package. This will give you three packages for the price of two.

Jiffy-Jell comes in many fruit flavors, but the choicest are Loganberry and Pineapple. You will find in each package a bottle of the fruit-juice flavor in liquid form, condensed.

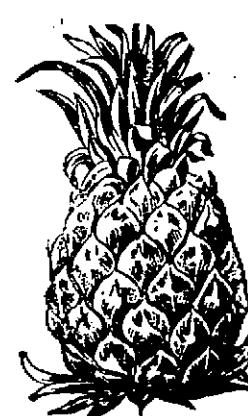

The Jiffy-Jell mixture is ready-sweetened, acidulated and in proper color. Simply add a pint of water as directed on the package, then the flavor from the vial, and let cool.

See what you get—a real fruit dessert for six people. It will have a wealth of fruit. It will change your whole conception of quick gelatine desserts.

Note that this offer is made on two flavors—on Loganberry and Pineapple only. Your grocer has no right to offer another. We want you to know Jiffy-Jell at its best.

Then always remember that this real-fruit dainty is ever at your command. It will bring you the joys of real fruit. And it will cost you, when you buy it, only a few cents per dinner. It will cost you less than the fruit alone which we use to make the flavor.

This offer is for this week only. Cut out the coupon now. If your grocer lacks the flavors mentioned, go to another store.

Coal Shortage Closes Steel Mills

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Mills of the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, forming the second largest steel producing region in the country, today faced possibility of closing on account of coal shortage, following orders by D. T. Murray, local fuel director, cutting off supplies to all factories.

Poland Mandate Over Eastern Galicia

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The supreme council decided this morning to give Poland a mandate over eastern Galicia under the League of Nations for a period of 25 years. At the end of that time, the league is to determine the future of the territory.

Coal to Essential Consumers

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—The Pittsburgh district fuel distributing committee of the United States Railroad administration proceeded on government orders today to supply coal to "essential" consumers only. Officials of industrial concerns not classed as essential, viewed the new order with apprehension.

Conflicting opinions came today from various persons interested in the situation on the question of a possible coal shortage here. Members of the fuel committee said there was no immediate danger of a shortage, but in industrial circles it was declared that if mines in the district were not soon reopened, many industries would feel the effects of a fuel famine.

COLLEGE PROFESSORS

Harvard university is conducting a campaign for an endowment fund under which it can make a 20 per cent increase in the pay of its teaching staff. It would be a great source of security to our government if all college professors received sufficient compensation for their services to render it unnecessary for them to accept large bonuses from outside organizations or foreign governments for literary or propaganda work which is in some cases directly opposed to the best interests of the United States. When it appears that some professors of our American colleges are in the pay of foreign governments to promote the standing and good repute of other nations at the expense of the United States, the situation is one that cannot be overlooked. It is unfortunately true that college professors like the school teachers, have suffered greatly from the high cost of living; but happily the cases are comparatively rare in which public school teachers show any unpatriotic trait as a result of unfair treatment. Not so, however, with the college professors. Many of them from prominent colleges have been preaching economic doctrines dangerously near the line of anarchism and certainly favorable to socialism. But some misguided clergymen have been equally guilty in this respect until the danger of their preaching became apparent and they were silenced by their congregations.

Whether college professors be paid from endowment funds or otherwise, it is highly desirable that they receive reasonable remuneration for their services and that they be restrained from engaging in any form of propaganda work calculated to weaken our government or undermine respect for lawfully constituted authority. It was Mr. Hoover who first pointed out the danger of having college professors line up with the radicals of the country if they did not receive sufficient pay for their services to support them in comfortable circumstances. Some colleges have averted the danger by liberal increases to their teaching force but others have conspicuously failed. It is true, however, that nearly all the colleges have restricted the utterances of their professors within the limits of patriotism, so that if any of the latter wishes to preach a doctrine that would reflect upon the institution by which he is employed, he will have to resign. It is eminently right and proper that a college may decline to be put in a false light by the erratic speeches or writings of any member of its faculty.

FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE

President Wilson has appointed a new industrial conference not divided on sectional lines, but made up of one body of men eminent fit to devise a plan for the promotion of industrial peace.

The first conference split up on a mere technicality before it entered upon its real program. That danger will be avoided in the second attempt, which has no conflicting elements.

During the past few months it seems that the air has been cleared regarding collective bargaining and some other questions upon which labor and capital have been divided in the past. There is ample ground upon which both can unite for their mutual benefit, if the extremists on either side will only keep to the rear.

It is high time that some reasonable construction should be put upon what we have been calling industrial democracy. Is it something that will serve the interests of employer and employee, or that will rather serve the radicals in their fixed opposition to all the interests of capital? There are many industries throughout the country successfully operated on a profit-sharing plan and a movement in this direction has seldom failed to give the employees a more lively interest in the work in which they are engaged. The chief trouble seems to be that when any step of this kind is taken, it is rendered impracticable by the demands of radicals who want to take over the employer's business and deprive him of the fruits of his industry and really rob all those who have invested their money in the enterprise.

It is certainly true to the death against a public official when, as reported, a resident of Boston has made provision in his will that the chicken substitutes are also moving fruit he has been collecting for the removal of District Attorney Pelletier of Boston, may be used thus: "I complain not should

there have been so many schemes of this kind prepared that the radical conference to assemble at Washington may do well to canvass them thoroughly with a view to recommending a plan that may be acceptable alike to employer and employee.

tions awaiting settlement by any such conference is that of preventing labor strikes and increasing production. At a recent meeting of the American Mining congress a proposition was made for an industrial arbitration of one year, during which all labor disputes would be settled by arbitrators. If such an arrangement could be made it would be a great boon for this country and would so increase production that prosperity and a continuation of industrial peace would undoubtedly follow.

CALLED THE BLUFF

The American Legion by its action in convention, gave congress an indication of its attitude in reference to the various measures and propositions now before congress for the benefit of the soldiers. These ranged from supplying them with free farms to offering them a bonus or enough to make a fair day's pay for every day spent in the service.

Through a desire to make a plausible excuse for delay, congress threw out a hint that it wished the soldiers themselves to specify what they wanted. Had they done this there would probably have been some congressional reason for not granting it.

But the service men have shown the good sense not to make a demand upon the government. They respectfully declined to be placed in the position either of hold-up men or of mendicants.

They expect fair treatment by the government, but will leave congress free to put its own estimate upon the value of their services to the country. In this they are right and they have astutely called the bluff of congress on account of its evasive policy of putting the various soldier bills with the mess of others that have been pigeonholed as a result of politics. Later on, the soldiers may have something to say in reference to congressional evasion and delay not only on this but on other questions of prime importance to the nation.

Between the bonus bill and that intended to aid service men in settling upon terms the latter has met with most favor by congress as not calling for a specific outlay. But even this has been sidetracked and all the stirring appeals made by Secretary Lane have proved practically fruitless.

THE TREATY Muddle

The expected has happened in reference to the fate of the peace treaty in the senate. The opposition has not been able to muster enough votes to ratify the treaty with the reservations adopted and the administration has been equally powerless to secure ratification without reservations. The result is a deadlock which may lead to the treaty so far as this country is concerned unless the leaders of both sides come together and adopt a compromise, or unless the president should hold it up for submission to the senate after December 1.

We are inclined to believe that in view of the serious consequences which would follow the defeat of the treaty, a compromise will be reached on ratification with some slight modifications of the reservations. The American people want the treaty, but they are not opposed to any reasonable reservations honestly designed to protect American interests against any possibility of domination by foreign governments.

The general public is extremely tired of the whole treaty question and is anxious to get it out of the way in some shape. To resubmit it to the senate would result in another long controversy very similar to that which the senate has had through in the last six months at the sacrifice of valuable time which should be devoted to the great problems of reconstruction. Unless a compromise is reached the senate will be likely to insist on leaving the whole question open with impunity.

THE DICTOGRAPH

It is certainly true to the death against a public official when, as reported, a resident of Boston has made provision in his will that the chicken substitutes are also moving fruit he has been collecting for the removal of District Attorney Pelletier of Boston, may be used thus:

"There have been so many schemes of this kind prepared that the radical conference to assemble at Washington may do well to canvass them thoroughly with a view to recommending a plan that may be acceptable alike to employer and employee."

He threatens criminal proceedings against the parties responsible for thus entering his office, but what the next step on either side will be is not apparent. Both sides of the controversy have been published recently, showing that it is an old fight revived by the discovery of a dictograph in the district attorney's office.

The dictograph is a great instrument, but there is no more justification for its surreptitious use in a man's office of his home than there is for the concealed presence of a detective, an interloper, or a burglar.

U. S. STAMP SCALPERS

Some conscienceless sharpers have been making money by purchasing war saving stamps at a discount and having them redeemed by the government. The loss falls upon the original purchasers. The purchasers or legitimate owners of war savings stamps need not look for purchasers who deal in stamps only for the purpose of swindling the owners. If the original purchaser wants money, the government will redeem the stamps. The process of redemption may be a little tedious, but it is better to comply with the regulations than sell the stamps at a sacrifice.

The government wants to discourage applications for redemption of the stamps as far as possible; but rather than allow sharks to trade upon the necessities of honest people, it will redeem the stamps. The government has already arrested a number of stamp scalpers and will punish them so far as the law will permit.

COAL FAMINE

Whether we shall have a coal famine depends, we presume, upon whether the operators will concede the miners' demands or whether the government can persuade the miners to return. If Fuel Commissioner Fairfield could start up the mines without the strikers, he would deserve the praise of the country almost as much as did the heroes of Chateau Thierry. He says the people will get coal and that the mines will be worked. Let us hope he can make good his word. Everybody wants the miners to get justice but nobody wants to see them overrule the government and the people.

THOSE GERMAN SHIPS

The supreme council in Paris has discussed without decision the status of the Imperator and other German ships now held by the United States. Here we have a chance to see how the machinery of the League of Nations applied to settling international disputes will work.—Boston Globe.

England has been after the German ships held in this country and the decision at Washington that she is to get the Imperator is no surprise.

What we need here is a state commission to investigate all strikes and report the causes to the public. That would show on which side the blame lay. In such conflicts the statements made by the opposing sides are contradictory and so far from both being true, they are usually a misrepresentation of the actual facts. The state is not doing its duty in such matters. The present board of conciliation and arbitration is of very little use and might as well be abolished.

The number of nominees for principal offices are so few that every voter can easily ascertain the eligibility and standing of each and thus be able to reject the less desirable and give the city the service of the best. Men who are honest and reliable, faithful and competent, are the ones to be preferred. Experience without honesty should not be considered in selecting public servants.

It is hoped that the spells of prohibition in Rhode Island will last long enough to allow the inebriates to sober off before the dry law is again declared unconstitutional. There has been such an exhibition of keeping on and off the water wagon that it is hard to tell just how little Rhode stands at present and we doubt whether she knows herself.

Turkeys are likely to be high priced at Thanksgiving and the chicken substitutes are also moving fruit he has been collecting for the removal of District Attorney Pelletier of Boston, may be used thus:

This talk about "cleaning out city hall" is all ballyhoo on the part of any candidate. It sounds big, but it doesn't mean anything. Removals and attempted removals, even of department heads, have not been very successful. And the present threat is older than the city hall itself.

A farmer from one of the towns near Lowell was discussing prohibition with another granger and made some of them sit up and take notice by declaring that he thought prohibition was a darn nuisance. But he held his own very well in the arguments that followed. "There's going to be better sold, anyhow," he said, "and the stuff they're selling now is something terrible. One of my hired men came home the other night and he was drunk as a fool. Now we have had an awful time with rats at our place, both in house and barn. I saw my wife getting the upper hand and about two weeks ago I bought and borrowed a lot of cats. For the last few days the rats have been pretty quiet, and now I'm going to jump back to the hired man and the whiskey. As I was saying, he came home terribly drunk. He was standing in the kitchen and a bottle that he tried to take from his pocket fell on the floor and smashed. The contents went over the floor and some of it reached a rat hole. Oh, yes, the rats had eat holes right into the kitchen. Well, I said, the firkin reached a rat hole and here's what happened. A big rat came and took a sniff. He went away, came back again and took another sniff. He went away again and the next time he came back he hopped up some of it and then he jumped out on the floor, stood up on his hind legs and said: 'Now bring on your d—cats.'

Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for headache, headache, woe, backache and worry, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Dr. Pierce fifty years ago.

FOR DEVELOPING BRAZIL'S RESOURCES

RIO DE JANEIRO.—(By the Associated Press)—A plan for developing Brazil's agricultural, pastoral and mineral resources has been proposed to the Chamber of Deputies by Dr. Cincinato Braga, deputy from the state of São Paulo. Pointing out Brazil's need for an iron and steel industry, he said that the state of Minas Gerais alone contains more than 2,500,000,000 tons of mineral which contains from 60 to 70 per cent. pure ore.

The deputy proposes that Brazil at once take steps to develop its own iron and steel industry, thereby effecting an economy of at least 30 percent and in addition greatly augmenting the resources of the country. To establish this industry, it is estimated, it will be necessary for the federal government to expend the equivalent of $13,750,000 in a period of seven years, at the rate of $1,250,000 annually.

The plants, it is proposed, are to be operated by electricity generated by water-power, and the initial appropriation suggested in the present Brazilian budget is intended for use in surveys and initial installation of hydro-electric plants.

The deputy recommended the establishment in each state of the union of four schools of practical instruction and training, under foreign teachers, in mechanical and electrical engineering, industrial chemistry, agriculture and veterinary science.

Liberal appropriations are recommended to assist cattle breeders in purchasing suitable foreign breeding stock.

FIRST WOMAN TO SEEK PUBLIC OFFICE IN RIO DE JANEIRO

RIO DE JANEIRO.—The first woman to seek election to public office in Rio de Janeiro is Daulinda Daltro, a professor in the public schools, who announces her candidacy as representative to the city council in the next municipal elections.

Mme. Daltro frankly admitted in an interview that she has not much hope of winning. She declared, however, that defeat at the polls was of less importance than the fact that she will be making a fight for the emancipation of her sex. Her main object, she said, will be to provoke debates on what she considers the momentous problem of obtaining political rights for the women of Brazil, who at present are not entitled to vote.

Mme. Daltro, who is a widow, has been prominently identified with educational and welfare work in Brazil for many years.

NEARLY KILLED IN RAID ON RADICALS

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Nov. 21.—United States Commissioner Charles N. Lillie of Grafton, W. Va., narrowly escaped injury or death yesterday when a bullet was discharged from a pistol concealed within the handle of a huge pocket knife found in raiding alleged radical headquarters at the Dakota mines, near here.

When Commissioner Lillie, who was assisting department of justice agents in the raid, picked up the knife from a table, it was discharged instantly, the bullet tearing a hole through the sleeve of his coat and barely missing his body.

CAMPAIGN TO MAKE WORLD 'DRY'

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 21.—A campaign to make the world dry was launched yesterday by the National Women's Christian Temperance Union. A legislative program was adopted, which among other recommendations urged congress to enact legislation disfranchising Americans in countries where treaties granted extra territorial rights, for acting in violation of the dry law.

The proposed law is designed to apply especially to brewers contemplating moving in China, it was explained. The entire legislative program was adopted as presented.

A total of $200 was collected for memorials to Gen. Pershing and Secretary of the Navy Daniels. The convention ended last night.

Welcome Home Reception
to Service Members of St.
Margaret's Parish

Attended by a record-breaking crowd the seventh annual reunion of St. Margaret's parish, held last evening in Associate hall, proved one of the most enjoyable events of the present season. The affair this year was in the nature of a welcome home reception to the young men and women of the parish who did their bit when democracy called, and a large number of former service men were present to participate in the splendid program arranged by the committee in charge.

The decorations by C. F. Young were handsome and appropriate.

The hall was tastefully draped with streamers of red, white and blue bunting and the stage was covered with a profusion of greenery, pointed palms and emblems of allied nations framed against a background of heavenly blue. In the centre of the stage was suspended a large shield with the words: "Welcome Home Our Heroes."

An excellent concert, in which appeared several well known local entertainers, was enjoyed during the early part of the evening and was followed by dancing. Broderick's popular or-

Petersburg, Va.—"For two years my daughter suffered from a weakness and pain in her right side; at times she was so bad she could not do any work. For two years she was attended by the best physicians here, and both agreed that she would have to be operated on. I suggested Lydia E. If every girl who suffers as Miss Wells did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, sideache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root end herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

The letters constantly being published from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No, you don't have to pay over $40 for a good overcoat unless you choose. Lots of men have bought coats here at $30, $35 and $40 that expected they'd have to pay more.

When we assured them they need have no fear of the quality, they were glad of the saving. They could find plenty uses for the money.

University Head Addresses Federation of Harvard Clubs in This City

200 Delegates Attend Annual Meeting—Lowell
Man For President

President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University, distinguished scholar and lecturer, was the honored guest and speaker at the dinner of the Federation of Harvard clubs held last evening at the Highland Club. The dinner marked the close of the annual gathering, with the Lowell Harvard club members as hosts, which first convened yesterday forenoon with business session at 10:30 o'clock, followed by luncheon and an afternoon of sports and recreation. More than 200 men attended.

Aside from President Lowell's address, election of officers held a prominent place at the dinner. Frederic C.
Weld of Lowell, 1919 secretary, was chosen president of the federation, to succeed Hon. William B. C. Stickney of Rutland, Vt. Other officers elected were:
Vice president, Charles D. Booth, Portland, Me.; secretary, Alfred Chase
Lynn; treasurer, Martin A. Taylor, Haverhill. The executive committee includes President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, William B. C. Stickney of Rutland, Vt., George Wigglesworth of Milton, Dr. Homer Cope of Worcester, J. Putnum Walker of Bancor, Me.,
Walter W. Simmons of Manchester, N.
H., C. T. Billings of Belmont, E. A.
Harriman of New Haven, Conn., Dr. A.
D. Crandall of Taunton, and George Richmond Parsons of Providence, R. I.

The problem of teaching Harvard students to think for themselves and assert themselves in the life of the world in which they live after college days, was the salient point put under discussion by President Lowell. In part, he said:

"At Harvard it is not our intention to stamp any particular note of thought upon the student. But there have been universities that have striven for that purpose, particularly so in Germany. What is a remarkable fact is contained in the truism that should not be asked to become strike-

German socialists, who differ from other Germans in that they would teach independence of thought rather than rule, have never received appointments to any of the educational offices. To the educational institutions there had been like our American schools, the militaristic projects of the German government could never have been launched.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating, not in any theoretical opinions that one may hold. Some persons have said that Harvard teaches pernicious doctrines and that the school tends to be irreligious.

"I do not know that graduates have exerted any irreligious influence, but rather that their influence has been altogether healthful and sound.

time I was called up on the telephone to Harvard but who stated that I had made a grave mistake in writing such

Defeat Lowell in Fast Game—Davies Back in Lowell Lineup

NEW BEDFORD, Nov. 21.—New Bedford poloists defeated Lowell in a fast game here last night by a score of 4 to 0. Davies, who had been out of the Lowell lineup for over a week returned to the game and played well. Mulligan was injured in the first period by coming in contact with O'Brien's stick, but received two goals. The others were driven in by Hart. The Lowell players worked hard all the way, but Conley's wonderful goal tending prevented a score. There was no scoring in the first period. The score:

POLO NOTES

Davies will be back in the game here tonight.

Opie Hart, Barney Doherty, Paul Gardner, Mossie Conley and Jack Keene or Len Mulligan will make up the New Bedford Whalers who play Lowell at the Crescent rink tonight.

The New Bedford outfit is regarded as one of the strongest in the league and is going like a house afire just now. Hart is in old time form and continues to pile up hat-tricks with remarkable consistency. He is leading the league in goal-getting and is also showing much speed in going to the spot.

A large number of Hart's friends and admirers will be on hand tonight to greet him.

The last time New Bedford played here Lowell was beaten and the Hartless crew will go out to win at any cost tonight.

Mossie Conley, goal tender of New Bedford, is one of the classiest cage guardians in the league. Recently he made an even 100 stops.

BOUTS HERE LAST NIGHT

Downes Beals Green, Herman Stopped Murphy and

O'Brien Kayos Sieger

Trouble likes company is an old expression, and if any seek verification they need go no farther than the managers of the Crescent A. These young men, who have been promoting excellent boxing entertainments for the past few months, had the most trouble some night of this season last night. The men scheduled to perform failed to appear. Substitutions were necessary with the result that there now stand on paper losses of all wood and a yard wide turned out to be a divisor.

Tony Valentine, Frankie Burns and Billy Dugay were the "absent brothers." Amongst the club officials of their respective companies they were unable to appear before the show started. The matchmaker first heard from one and then the other and became so worried that he sent men to find them. Finally, late yesterday afternoon, Ferguson had a new card completed.

The eight officials regretting the last minute changes and realizing the disappointment it would cause, posted a notice in front of the quarters giving full information of the new lineup.

These four Ladies have regained their health and strength by taking RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women

Saying a good word for RED PILLS

It is now six years since I took RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women, and I consider it my duty to praise them highly, for they have helped me so much that I am now strong and well. I eat well, sleep well and in fact cannot complain of anything. Two boxes of RED PILLS relieved me, and fifteen boxes put me in fine health. I now take pleasure in recommending RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women to my numerous friends.—Mrs. PHILIAS GAMACHE,

When a Woman's Teeth Are Most in Danger

The quality of the saliva has much to do with the condition of the teeth. Before the baby comes, and immediately thereafter, it undergoes a change, and often the mother finds herself with sensitive gums and loosening teeth. This condition is temporary, and need not be mistaken for the onset of syphilis. Miss Delta Spofford, a nurse at the state hospital, New York, with years of experience, advises the gentle use of the tooth brush twice a day with a preparation free from irritating drugs, and gum massage by finger. She recommends Alabdon Dental Cream knowing it is both effective and safe and fully meets all requirements of women and children.

A tube holding 55 bristles can be bought guaranteed at any drug store. Alabdon is calcium carbonate, saponified and mixed with the well-known antiseptic oils of cloves, cinnamon and eucalyptus, which authorities declare is best for women and children.—Adv.

Several dentists packed in oblong tin boxes holding each a quarter of a pound will provide a better variety for a packet than a larger quantity of a single confection.

DRIED FRUITS AND OTHER FOOD PRODUCTS SHOULD BE PACKED IN SMALL TIN OR WOODEN BOXES, ONE-QUARTER TO ONE-HALF POUND SIZE.

Chesterford Boy Charged With Manslaughter Is Held in $2000

Accused of manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Grace M. Sowry, 40, of 2 Hereford place, 16-year-old Harry Maneau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Maneau of Chesterford Centre, pleaded not guilty in Juvenile court today and was held in $2000 for hearing Dec. 19. The boy's father furnished bonds. The police allege that the lad is the driver of the automobile which struck and almost instantly killed Mrs. Sowry on Middlesex street this morning.

The accident happened shortly before 7 o'clock. Mrs. Sowry was on her way to work in the Appleton mills and had stepped from the sidewalk near the intersection of Middlesex and Grand streets when she saw an auto coming down the street, according to the story of eye-witnesses. She stopped short, and the machine also came to a halt. Momentarily confused, she stepped in front of the car as it started, and was thrown to the ground, fracturing her skull.

She was first taken to St. John's hospital, and later the body was removed to the funeral parlors of C. H. Molley's Sons. She is survived by her husband, who is believed to be in Providence, and two sons, both of Lowell.

committee has not raised salaries this year," said Mr. Walsh. "Is that it had not sufficient money? I understand that teachers have complained, but the committee looks upon such complaints as unreasonable. Newspaper editorials of great length have been written regarding teachers' salaries, but I have yet to see the fair amount of consideration given the position of the committee or its side put forth."

"In the early part of 1919, when the committee was at work on the preparation of its yearly budget, it told the teachers that if they desired salary increases this year to make such requests at that time when the financing of the entire school system was being considered for the year. The committee told the Teachers' organization that the salary question would not be taken up again during the fiscal year. The teachers had received a raise in September of 1918 and with the exception of the kindergarten instructors, were given the amounts requested.

"After the committee's statement to the teachers early this year, the organization said it would not ask for an increase then, but did request that the period of time for attaining the maximum salary be reduced from 10 to seven years. That meant an increase to a great many teachers. The committee granted that request and believed the salary question settled for the year."

In June the police and firemen asked the municipal council for salary increases and at about the same time the teachers made a similar request. They asked for a hearing, but as the committee refused, but as chairman of the board I sent a communication to the Teachers' organization, saying that in view of what already had passed at the beginning of the year in relation to salaries and in view of the fact that the committee already had asked the municipal council for an additional $25,000 for the running expenses of the department for the remainder of the year, the board would not take up the salary increase question at that time but would postpone it until December. The request was neither granted nor refused, simply postponed.

"There seems to be an impression in the city that the school committee can expend any amount of money it pleases at any time, but that is not a fact. Under the city charter, no money can be expended by any department until an appropriation therefor is voted by the council. As I understand the charter there may be an emergency expenditure to exceed the appropriation, but the raising of salaries is not such an emergency under the law."

"The committee recently received two unexpected additions to its appropriation. One came from the federal government called the Smith-Hughes fund, which must be expended for vocational school purposes exclusively. The other is a payment from the commonwealth, authorized by an act of 1919, being the distribution of the general school fund, so-called. The Smith-Hughes fund was applied immediately to the increasing of salaries of vocational school instructors and to appoint two new teachers, who were urgently needed. The state money, just received by the city, has been appropriated to the school department. The statement has been made that this money could not be legally used for any purpose other than to raise salaries. That is absolutely wrong."

"It is a reimbursement to the city for salaries already paid and is made up on the basis of a refund of $100 for each teacher receiving between $650 and $750; $150 for each teacher receiving between $750 and $850, and $2000 for each teacher receiving more than $850. The amount which the city received totals a little more than $50,000. This money may legally be used by the school department for any purpose to which it deems it wise to apply it, but the committee believes that so far as is possible the money should be used to increase salaries and it will be so applied."

"Some weeks ago the Teachers' organization was notified that the committee intended to grant increases and facts and figures were asked for, showing salaries being paid in other cities so that a new schedule could intelligently be made up. These facts were furnished the board and we now have them under consideration. Also the matter was taken up with the janitors and other department employees and their requests also are under consideration."

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Leading issues were one to three points higher at the opening of today's stock market yesterday's late rally being barely extended. Motors and shipyards turned the advance, closely followed by steel, chemicals, coal and equipments. High priced specialties were represented by Industrial Alcohol and Columbia Gas & Electric was unusually active at a gain of almost three points. Sugar shares were in better demand and textiles strengthened. Realizing that profits would moderate reversals were limited to a half hour.

Another rally in foreign exchanges and indications that the money stringency has been overcome, facilitated the further advance of prices during the morning. Easter money conditions were confirmed by the state bank of New York, which said that Crucible Steel, General Motors and high grade oils gained six to 13 points in the first hour, accompanied by more urgent covering of shorts. Tobaccos kept pace with the stronger food, leather and shipping issues, but rails were quiet. Textiles and motor shares moved actively in the broader market at noon.

General Motors, Crucible Steel and Mexican Petroleum forfeited one-third to one-half of their gains during the dull mid-session, probably on realization that other quarters, especially among equipments and shipyards, gains of the forenoon were materially increased.

Excepting United Fruit, which made an extreme gain of 9 points, prices reacted to 5 points in the final hour, coppers showing especial weakness. The closing was irregular.

MONEY MARKET

Call money, term; high 8%; low, 6%; ruling rate, 6%; closing bid, 6%; offered at 6%; last loan, 6%; bank acceptances, 4%.

VILLA'S CHIEF AID ON TRIAL FOR REBELLION

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 21.—General Felipe Angeles, chief Lieutenant of Francisco Villa and famous artillery expert, captured last Wednesday by Mexican federal forces under General Gabino Olivo, near Valle Oliva, faced trial by court martial today in Chihuahua City. The trial is considered by Mexican authorities as the most important held in that country during a decade of revolution and banditry.

Reports along the border today were to the effect that Gen. Angeles would be accused of rebellion against his

YELLOW—or PINK—or BLUE—or LAVENDER If it's not brilliant, it's just NOT a new blouse

OUR breath is almost taken away by the suddenness of Fashion's leap into color—almost overnight our blouses have changed from a simple white to a butterfly festiveness.

Turquoise, green, gray, bisque, yellow, coral, copenhagen, flaming reds—they troop by. The shops can't get fast enough the vivid blouses in every style, from sport shirts to sheerest chiffons, that women are

HOW TO USE TWINK

For Flesh, Pink, Peach, Old Rose, Yellow and Lavender: You make a gay lather as hot as your hands will bear, and wash the garments just as with Lux, only rinsing in cold water.

For the other colors: You use salt, and boiling water. You work the garment about in the boiling hot Twink suds for five minutes, then add cold water until the suds are cooled just enough for your hands to bear. Then squeeze the suds through, as with Lux, and rinse in cold water till the water runs clear.

The amounts to use are given in the directions that come with the Twink package.

YOU can hardly believe it. But that's what Twink is made for—to give to every kind of feminine fabric any exquisite color you choose at the same time it launders as perfectly as Lux.

Authoritative colors—that always come out right

The thing that pleases you most when you wear a Twinked blouse or sweater is that you know the colors are really smart. Every shade was approved by the authorities in this country on the colors of women's clothes.

And they come out right. You get lovely, true color every time, with never a streak or a spot, and a color so fast you can wash your blouse several times with Lux before you need Twink it again.

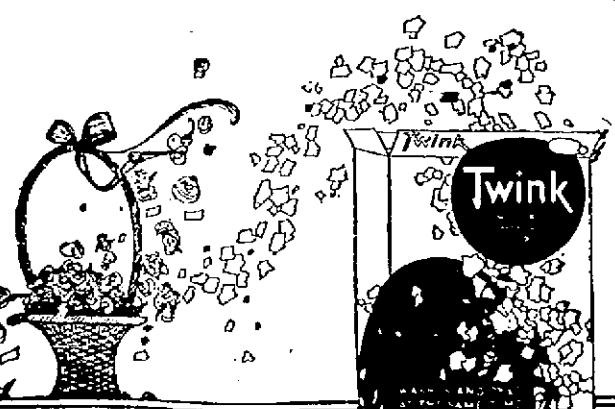

AS WONDERFUL FOR GIVING COLORS AS LUX IS FOR PRESERVING THEM

Made by the makers of Lux

It's all so amazingly easy and quick. The flakes melt into a hot, bright lather, you work your blouse about in it for a few minutes and gently squeeze the suds through. Then rinse it well in cold water, press it—and all in a twinkling, your sober waist is gay—gay. And the blue waist the sun faded so, is a heavensent blue again, and your too pale pink one is blushing like a rose.

Get today two or three packages of Twink in colors you've most been wanting. You just follow the surprisingly easy directions with the package—and Twink won't injure any fabric that water alone won't harm.

Get Twink at any department store, or 5 and 10 cent store, or at your druggist's. Lever Bros. Company, Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux).

Appeal For Angeles

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Many officials and private citizens of Washington and other cities have sent cable messages to friends in Mexico urging them to persuade President Carranza

to save the life of General Felipe Angeles, who is reported to be on trial by court-martial today at Chihuahua City. The messages pointed out that Angeles served the allies with distinction during the European war as inspector of munitions for France in this country.

JOB OPEN IN LOWELL

For the first time in many weeks regulations are on hand at the United States employment bureau for help in the city. Painters, laborers, and woolen spinners are needed, according to C. F. Cronin, manager of the office. There are also a variety of positions open for those who are willing to go out-of-town.

Rumania is one of the favorite homes of superstition, where superstitions accompany life literally from the cradle to the grave.

DISCUSS INTERVENTION IN MEXICO BY U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—State department officials in discussing the Mexican situation today disclosed that three years ago the army general staff estimated that an army of 150,000 men and three years would be required for complete intervention in Mexico by the United States.

Officials did not say what the present estimate of the general staff was, but it was said to be less than that prepared before the world war, due to the development of new instruments of warfare and an enormous increase in American war materials of all kinds, particularly motorized transports, airplanes and artillery.

Discussing the case of William O. Jenkins, American consul agent at Puebla, who was re-arrested last Tuesday on charges in connection with his abduction by bandits, officials said because of the Mexican government's laxity in trying to put down the revolution, it had failed to give proper protection to Jenkins and that consequently he might have ground for claim against the Mexican government for the ransom money paid to his captors.
